19TH YEAR. NO. 215. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1902. TWO CENTS.

WAR IS DECLARED ON SLOT MACHINES

Prosecuting Attorney Brookes Will Call the Grand Jury's Attention to the Matter.

SAYS THEY PLAINLY VIOLATE THE LAW

Forty-five in Operation in East Liverpool Saloons, and Keepers May Be Indicted.

OHIO LAWS PROVIDE SEVERE PENALTY

War has been declared on the slot machines in this city. Since the introduction of these devices into the saloons here several months ago many wild and exaggerated rumors have been current as to the steps that would eventually be taken for the ousting of them. Until today there has been no authentic basis for the reports in circulation.

Official action is to be inaugurated against the owners of the machines and also against those who have permitted them to be operated in their places of business. Investigation develops the fact that every one of those implicated in the least in the machines and their operation is likely to be indicted by the next grand jury which convenes on September 22. The ground is that the machines are gambling devices.

The indictments, if found, will be upon what has been allowed to exist in this city up to the present time, and if every machine is not closed, shipped from the city or otherwise disposed of immediately a separate indictment will be asked for every day that they are in operation between the present time and the day that action is taken on them by the jury.

The following inscription placed at the top of the machines, it is said, will give rise for defense if the cases are brought up for trial:

"THIS IS NOT A GAMBLING DEVICE.

"Any person desiring to gamble must not put money in this machine. As a consideration for the use of this Music Machine and the music furnished, it is expressly agreed that any of the nickels which come out in the cup below must and shall be played back into the machine, thereby giving more music."

Prosecuting Attorney Jason H. Brookes when interviewed today, made the following statement:

"I expect to call the attention of the coming grand jury to the case of every slot machine in this city. They are clearly gambling machines, and the musical accompaniments attached to each will not deceive a court.

"I have already evidence in my possession of 45 such machines kept by as many different saloonkeepers. Each day these machines are kept here will lay the foundation for an additional charge. The punishment for each offence is both fine and imprisonment—the fine not more than $500 and not less than $50, and imprisonment in the workhouse or jail, not more than 90 days or less than ten days."

MAYOR TOOK PART IN FOOT RACE

Sebring's Chief Engaged in It to Oblige an Old Friend.

IN LIEU OF PAYING FINE

The Ex-Prisoner Hoped to Win—The Mayor Outran Him And There Is Now a Coldness Between the Former Cronies.

It is an impossibility for a man to be mayor and retain all of his friends. At least this is the firm belief of Joseph Gibbon, a former well known potter of East Liverpool, who is now the chief executive of Sebring.

Joe had a friend in the Mahoning pottery town whose name is Charley. The latter is one of the boys, and occasionally gets on a "bat." Last week several days were spent by him in an attempt to consume all the booze both Alliance and Selam could produce. The result was disastrous to Charley, as he not only failed in his attempt to get on the outside of all the liquor at hand, but wound up with a bad case of remorse and an exceedingly bad disposition. So ugly did he become that the authorities finally arrested him.

He was arraigned before Mayor Gibbon. The latter was plainly embarrassed, as he and Charley were the best of friends. In passing sentence the mayor said: 'Charley, I hate to do this, but it is my duty to do so. The law and good order of this community must be upheld, and it is the sentence of the court that you pay a fine of $5.60 on a charge of disorderly conduct."

The money was paid over, but Charley still lingered in the mayor's office. After shifting about in his seat for a short time he finally said: "You and I have been good friends for a long time, Joe, and it is a most unfortunate occurrence that has just taken place. Don't you think you could remit the fine?"

Mayor Gibbon said it would be impossible, but there might be some other way around the embarrassing situation. He said it went against his grain to take his friend's money.

Charley proposed a game of crib, but the mayor thought that would affect his dignity, and several other plans were suggested with the same objectionable features. Finally a foot race was agreed upon, the stakes to be $5 a side. Charley was confident he could win, and if he did he would only be out 60 cents.

The preliminaries were arranged, and the race was won by the mayor. The friend had evidently forgotten that Gibbon had once been a sprinter of some note, as he beat him badly; in fact, Charley had trouble in keeping in sight.

There has been a coldness between the mayor and his former friend ever since, and this was changed to an absolute frost when Charley got word from England, asking about the $10.60 he had lost.

Meantime the magistrate is thinking seriously of resigning his position, since he states he cannot afford to make enemies in that way.

RESIGNATION OF CALCUTTA PASTOR

Rev. W. B. Campbell Will Quit the Ministry and Study Medicine.

U. P. PRESBYTERY CALLED

Next Monday Evening to Act Upon the Resignation—The Pastor's Action a Complete Surprise to His Congregation.

The resignation of Rev. Wm. B. Campbell as pastor of the Calcutta United Presbyterian church fell on the church like a bolt from a clear sky. Not a member of the little country church expected anything of the sort, and to say that the members of the church were surprised is to express their feelings but mildly.

For some time Rev. Mr. Campbell has been considering the idea of leaving the ministry and entering the medical profession. He reached the decision in this matter last week, and consequently presented his resignation to the members of the congregation as pastor. The resignation will take effect one week from next Sunday, and on the morning of that day he will preach his farewell sermon. The congregation has voted to release him.

A meeting of Steubenville presbytery will be held in the First Presbyterian church in this city next Monday for the purpose of taking action upon the resignation of Pastor Campbell. At this time it is impossible to tell who will be the postor of the church at Calcutta. A meeting of the officials of this church will be held soon at which time a list of supplies will be made out. In this way the congregation will be able to hear a new minister indefinitely, and when the members of the church think they have heard a preacher that pleases them, a call will be extended to him to become pastor of the church. This plan is followed in all churches of this denomination and is exactly that which the Second United Presbyterian church in the East End followed.

Rev. W. B. Campbell has been pastor of the Calcutta church for several years, and has a large circle of friends throughout the country district about Calcutta, who are sorry to see him leave.

MOULDMAKERS' LOCAL OUT OF BROTHERHOOD

Action Taken by the N. B. of O. P. Executive Board Annulling Number 22's Charter.

INDEPENDENT UNION LIKELY TO BE FORMED.

Mouldmakers' local, No. 22, as a subordinate organization of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, is a matter of hisory. Its connection with the Brotherhood was severed at a meeting held last evening. In fact, one mouldmaker said this morning that they were driven from home.

The final outcome of the meeting last evening and the causes that led up to it created a profound sensation in pottery circles today. The recent meeting of the national executive board, which was held in this city a few days ago, was the closing chapter of a friction that has been of long standing between the local and the Brotherhood.

It appears that the Trenton convention, which was attended by Thomas Harsha, as a delegate of local No. 22, was the beginning of the friction. When the convention ended, Mr. Harsha, the delegate of this local, returned home with other delegates, and at the following meeting of the local, a report of the convention was presented by Mr. Harsha. This was followed by the local passing a resolution in which it was stated that the mouldmakers were satisfied with conditions in their branch of the trade as they existed, and a copy of this resolution was sent to the conference committee of the National Brotherhood before any conference had been held with the committee which represented the Western Manufacturing Potters' association.

A like copy was also sent to all mouldmakers outside the city, and not in any way affiliated with the mouldmakers' local in this city. As is well known, there is hardly a pottery in the city where the work of the mould shop is not done under contract, and at the convention one of the most important discussions was that which referred to the abolishment of this system.

Now it is averred that this resolution, after being read by the National officers, was followed by charges against the mouldmakers by the national officers, in which it was alleged that the local was trying to defeat the ends and purposes of the national officers in trying to enforce the action of the Trenton convention. A trial was the result of these charges, and this was the main cause of the national executive committee being called to this city.

The mouldmakers, at a meeting a short time beforehand, appointed a committee and at the proper time appeared before the executive board. This meeting was held in closed chambers at the national headquarters and no information could be secured at the time from the national officers concerning the meeting or trial. During the trial the committee representing the mouldmakers demanded but two things: Conviction or acquittal.

The result of the trial was never made public by the national officers, although at times rumors had been heard about the outcome.

At the meeting of the mouldmakers last evening a communication was read by Secretary J. G. Mantz, the substance of which was that the local was expelled from the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters. This was followed by the secretary being instructed to return to the national headquarters all property in the possession of the local which belonged to the national organization. This included charter, seals, moneys and

ALBERT M'INTOSH HAS BEEN FOUND

Will Return to This City Very Soon and Be Placed Under Bond.

Albert McIntosh has been located. He will arrive in the city within the next 48 hours and quietly walked into the office of Squire H. P. McCarron, there to answer to the charge preferred against him.

Contrary to announcements published from police headquarters he is now and has been since last Monday morning with his wife in the vicinity of New Matamoras, visiting relatives.

James C. McIntosh, father of Albert, is responsible for the statement. He appeared before Squire McCarron yesterday afternoon; gave the information as to his son's location, and then made arrangements for a bond that will cover any amount that might be required by the squire, provided he sees fit to bind the young man over to the grand jury.

The elder McIntosh said: "I did not know definitely for several days where my son was, but was positive he had gone down the river. I now know that he is visiting relatives near New Matamoras, and that he will return to give himself up before Sunday."

Just why the fugitive has kept himself in seclusion when it would be possible for him to get bond for several thousand dollars is not known. It was likely due to his fear of being tried on a murder charge, and even a man well backed financially does not covet such a position.

Constable Charles Gill is out of town and it is supposed that he has gone after McIntosh.

Albert Thompson, the young man who was cut while a dance was in progress near Calcutta last Saturday evening, was to be brought to his home in this city today. His condition is much improved, and it is now thought that he will entirely recover from the injuries he received during the fight.

FENDERS FOR ALL CARS

The East Liverpool Railway Company Arranging to Equip Them Very Soon.

Within 30 days all the cars of the East Liverpool Railway company will be equipped with fenders. This was the statement of Supt. Thompson, of the United Power company, this morning. It will be remembered that the exclusive announcement was made in this paper several weeks ago that the company was experimenting with a fender which was invented by Mr. Thompson and made at the power house by Morris Baxter, chief engineer of the company, and was given a thorough trial by being placed on car No. 39, a summer car. It has proved what has been claimed for it, and is one of the most satisfactory fenders ever invented.

Many of these fenders are now being made at the power house, and the work of placing them on the cars will commence shortly. On the double truck cars there will be a fender at each end, while on the smaller cars, a fender will be placed at one end only. A fender is to be placed on each end of the cars operated on the Calcutta road branch.

Democratic State Convention.

Columbus, Sept. 11.—(Special)—The State Democratic Committee completed its organization yesterday by electing A. P. Sandals, a newspaper man of Ottawa, as secretary. It was decided to assess each candidate on the state ticket, excepting Rev. Herbert Bigelow, of Cincinnati, who aspires to be secretary of state, $1,000. Mr. Bigelow's services on the stump will be accepted in lieu of an assessment.

PRACTICALLY PENNILESS

Ex-Mayor Magowan, of Trenton, Has None of Those $2,000,000 Left.

Reports from the east state that Frank A. Magowan, former mayor of Trenton, ex-president of the Trenton Potteries company and known to some in this city, is now practically penniless. Only seven years ago his wealth was estimated at $2,000,000. Magowan's first wife, from whom he was divorced to marry the divorced wife of Mr. Barnes, after a hard struggle with poverty has been appointed to a position as copyist in the chancery court in Trenton.

Magowan began life as a newsboy. He had been elected mayor of Trenton before he met Mrs. Barnes. Now his millions, his business, his beautiful $500,000 home and special trains, his horses and carriages, are said to have vanished. Magowan scattered money with a lavish hand while it lasted, but luck did not stay with him, and during recent court proceedings he swore he was penniless.

NEW YARDS IN THE WEST END

Four Tracks Across Carpenter's Run Bridge and What They Mean.

While much has been said and more written about the improvements that are to be made about this city by the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad the exact facts or the intentions of the company have not yet been told. The story of the company securing rights of way through the city for an additional track or tracks, reports of contracts for excavating being asked, and all that sort of thing, have been written about, but exactly what the company is now doing has never been told.

When the railroad company sent a pile driver to this city several weeks ago to do some work in the vicinity of the flint mill, little was thought at the time of the enlarged freight yards that the company proposed to build in this city. This work is now under way, but it will be January before the contracts are completed. Of course the main point in view is the double tracking of the road at this spot and this is to be done at once.

The work of taking down the stone work of the bridge at the flint mill is now under way, and the trenches have been dug on the east side of the bridge for the east abutment to the bridge. The bottom of this trench is just six feet below the bed of Carpenter's run, and from the tracks to the bottom of the trench it is about 40 feet. When this new bridge is completed it will contain four tracks. Two of the tracks will be used for main line purposes, and the other two for siding purposes. An official of the railroad company made this statement yesterday afternoon.

When the four tracks are completed it will mean that the freight yards or storage tracks on the West End will have been enlarged. Freight trains

FIXED AT TEN MILLS

A Most Important Clause Limiting Aggregate City Tax Levy.

Columbus, Sept. 11.—(Special)—The senate passed a number of sections of the administration code yesterday. The most important one was the clause limiting the aggregate tax levy in any municipal corporation in any one year, exclusive of the levy for county and state purposes, for schools, sinking fund and interest, to ten mills.

Senator Archer offered an amendment to increase the aggregate levy to 12 mills, but later withdrew it. The levy may be increased upon a two-thirds vote.

CONGRESSMEN COMING

Rivers and Harbors Committee to Visit Pittsburg and the Ohio River.

Pittsburg, September 11.—A conference was held yesterday by Captains W. B. Rodgers, S. S. Brown and John F. Dravo in regard to the congressional rivers and harbors committeemen's visit to Pittsburg tomorrow and Saturday. The Monongahela House will be headquarters and the main inspection up the Monongahela river will be made tomorrow. The local government engineer will accompany the party, which will include also representatives of the Pittsburg chamber of commerce.

Congressman T. E. Burton, chairman of the rivers and harbors committee, has not notified Captain Dravo what other members will be here. Captain Brown's yacht Trobadour will be used for the inspection trips.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

MAKING GRATE FILLING.

While the fact is known to but a few in this city, a local manufacturer has been making orders for gas grates for a Pittsburg stove firm for about a year. Who is there who has not seen a gas grate filled with clay potatoes and the like? But to have a grate filled with something that resembles a doughnut is new. These are made in this city, at one plant, and in remarkably large quantities. The Pittsburg firm so far this season has placed an order for 25,000 of these pieces, and the first order is now being filled, but it is expected that from now until cold weather ends, the order will have been increased to at least 100,000 pieces. The orders for last winter amounted to about 75,000 pieces. The making of these fillers, as they might properly be called, is interesting. A piece of sagger clay is taken, which has been thoroughly rolled in sawdust. It is then batted out to a certain thickness The tin cutter is then applied to the clay, and then you have something that resembles the doughnut that mother used to make. This small piece of clay is then pressed slightly in the hand, sufficient to show the marks of the finger, and when dried to a certain extent is placed in a kiln, but not in a sagger. In burning these small pieces of clay the sawdust is consumed, and when they are taken from the kiln they are very hard, but they are so light they weigh but a few ounces. The order is a profitable one, and contracts have been signed for several years ahead.

FIRST KILN OF TOPS.

The Cone Fire Clay company, of this city, whose business is confined to the making of chimney tops, at the plant of the East Liverpool Sagger company, yesterday drew its first kiln of tops. The kiln was partially filled with saggers, and it cannot be said that the first kiln was made with success. The mine where the company secured its clay at Salineville was sold, and the local company could not obtain a shipment of this clay. Another mine was opened near the former by another company, and the first car of clay received here was not like that taken from the old mine. The miners are still working, however, and the next shipment of clay will be of the same standard as was used at Salineville. It was also said the tops were placed in the kiln while they were too wet, and being fired with a quantity of saggers was another drawback. Some of the tops taken from the kilns yesterday were of an excellent quality, and these will be shipped at once. The company will probably not fire tops and saggers at the same time again. W. A. Weaver, of Washington street, is the manager of the chimney top department of this plant, and has been associated with that business for many years. That he will have a good quality of clay on hand before the next kiln of tops is fired is a certainty. His company is receiving orders daily, and enough are on hand at present to keep several pressers at work for many months. At present no stock will be made, and all the tops that are made will be shipped at once. About six different designs of tops are being made by this firm.

THE CROOKSVILLE PLANT.

The starting of the new pottery at Crooksville will be awaited with interest by pottery workers in this city, partially on account of a number of local people who will no doubt be employed there and because William Tritt, formerly of this city, is to manage the plant. The clay shops and mould shops will be located on the second floor and on the lower floor will be the clay bins, slip house and green house. The kiln shed and dipping house will be one story. The glost warehouse and decorating shop will be on a level with the kiln shed. Five kilns, three glost and two bisque, will be the capacity of the plant. It will operate four decorating kilns also. Mr. Tritt stated that he would be very careful in selecting his shapes and has two toilet sets modeled and one dinner set being finished. The sagger clay arrived last week and the saggermaker will commence at once. The mouldmaker will start perhaps this week and by engaging three or four assistants can soon have the shop filled with saggers The plant will have sufficient capacity to steam heat the entire plant. A 100 horse power engine has been purchased and placed in operation for the purpose of giving power. Instead of the customary iron stacks for draught the company have erected two large brick stacks. Mr. Tritt stated they were aware of the fact that the expense was great at present, but it proves the cheapest in the long run.

NO SHOW IN SIGHT.

The western potters would like to have a full display of American pottery manufacturers at the St. Louis Exposition in 1904, says a Pittsburg trade paper. American ceramics have not been exhibited to advantage at any international exposition since the one held in Chicago, and the clay industries would certainly benefit by such a display at the St. Louis Exposition. Some East Liverpool ware was exhibited at the Buffalo show, but the expense of this sort of advertising could have been spent to better advantage in other channels, so most manufacturers think.

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT.

William Cuthbert, bench boss on the glost end at the Brunt pottery, met with an unfortunate accident Tuesday. Mr. Cuthbert was walking in the kiln with two saggers on his head, and not thinking he was in the kiln so far, accidently stepped into a well hole, His right foot went into the hole and he could not very well catch himself on account of the weight of the saggers. His foot was severly sprained, and he will be able to return to work in a few days. He resides on May street.

AT WORK EXCAVATING.

The work of excavating for the proposed improvements to the West End pottery is progressing rapidly, the contract for this work having been let to McLaughlin Brothers. A large force of men are employed in this work, and it is expected their contract will be completed within a week. The improvement to the pottery will be rushed as fast as it is possible to do so, and it is thought, with everything in the firm's favor, the new addition will be completed within three months. This new addition will cost several thousand dollars, and everything therein will be modern in every particular.

ITS OUTPUT SOLD.

It is not often that the output of a factory is sold just when a new shop commences business, but this is the case with the East Liverpool Sagger company. Is is announced that this company, just before it commenced business, entered into contracts to keep several of the largest potteries in the city supplied with saggers, and for that reason, no saggers are being made for stock. The company just a day or so ago, received an order for a carload of saggers, and the order is now being filled. In fact, this shop is filling orders just as they come in, but at the same time keeping contracts with the firms in this city.

KILNMAN INJURED.

Mason Reed, of First avenue, a glost kilnman at Laughlin No. 2, met with an accident this morning that will prohibit him from working for several days. He was carrying a sagger up the steps into the kiln when his foot slipped, allowing the saggger to fall from his head and striking his left arm. He went to the office of a physician and although no bones were found to be broken, the arm was found bruised considerably.

TOOK SOME HUSTLING.

The New Castle China company has been compelled to hold over in getting out new dinner ware. A short time ago it completed a very large order for the Duquesne Club, of Pittsburg, and now it is said has a contract with the state of Texas to supply all its public institutions. It is possible that the company may be able to start on its shape some time during the latter part of the fall.

JERSEY CHARTER OBTAINED.

The Barberton Pottery company secured incorporation papers at Trenton Monday. The capital stock of the concern is placed at $150,000, and from announcements in eastern papers, the incorporation was secured through one of the Jersey city agencies. The incorporators are: P. E. Whittemore, H. E. Andrews, F. M. Atterholt. The company is to operate a pottery.

WANT A PACKER.

Within the past two days another firm in a town not for from this city sent word to this city that is desired a packer to take charge of the shop. So far no one has heard of any person applying for the position, and the prevailing opinion is that all the packers who are employed in this city propose to remain here. The idea is an excellent one.

WATER TANK BURST.

The large water tank at the Crescent pottery at Trenton, used for fire purposes, gave way yesterday morning and let its contents out on the roofs and grounds surrounding it. The damage, except to the tank, is not great. The break is supposed to have been the result of a weak band. The tank will be repaired at once.

AT MILWAUKEE.

Thomas Robinson, general manager of the East Liverpool pottery, a branch of the East Liverpool Potteries company, who has been visiting friends in Milwaukee for several days, is expected home the latter part of this week. This is the first vacation Mr. Robinson has had for some years and his many friends hope he is having an enjoyable trip.

THREE DAYS A WEEK.

The anthracite coal strike is still affecting the plants of the Greenwood China company, at Trenton. They are only working three days a week because anthracite coal is hard to get and bituminous lacks the heating properties necessary to fire the Greenwood company's particular kind of ware.

LARGE MEMBERSHIP.

A local union of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters was organized in Barberton Tuesday night with 75 members. National President A. S. Hughes was assisted by a large delegation of Akron potters in installing the union. This union is the ninth union to be installed in the last three months.

ONE PRINTER ON.

There seems to be a shortage of ware at the East Liverpool pottery, and it is announced that but one printer is working. It has been many months since there has been a shortage of ware at this plant, but this is a condition that always exists at a pottery at some time or another.

TEMPORARY QUARTERS.

The Crescent pottery of the Trenton Potteries company will soon resume operations. A frame structure has been erected in the yard and will be used as a packing shed until a new one is built.

TRANSFERER ILL.

Owing to the serious illness of one of the members of his crew, the others and Edward Hatton, a printer at the Wallace & Chetwynd pottery, did not work yesterday.

EAST END

PORTER DEPARTED

The recent wreck on the Monongahela division of the Pittsburg Railway company in which a car crashed into a house near Brown's Bridge, was read with more than usual interest by street railway employes residing in the East End. This runaway car was in charge of Motorman John Porter, who formerly resided at Ralston Crossing, near the power house, and who for several years was employed on the East Liverpool railway as motorman and conductor. Porter was unable to check the speed of his car as it was descending the hill, and when it crashed into a house and injured about a dozen persons, Porter sustained a deep cut in his lip, and was otherwise bruised.

That same day Porter left the employ of the company and has not been seen since, although it was said the accident was no fault of his, and this was verified by the passengers on the car, who said that he could not get his brakes to work. A day or so later Porter was seen on a train passing through this city, and it is presumed by his friends here that he was on his way to Cleveland.

Wright vs. Hays.

Before a jury in the court of Justice L. W. Carman in the East End last evening the case of Wright against Hays was tried. The amount involved was but $30.40, for work and labor, but it was decided by the jury that the contract was not completed and that the amount claimed was not yet due. Just as soon as the contract is completed the money will be paid to the plaintiff.

Quarterly Conference.

The last quarterly conference of the conference year will be held this evening at the Erie street M. E. church on Pennsylvania avenue. All arrangements have been completed and the meeting is expected to be largely attended. Dr. Charles E. Manchester, of Steubenville, will be present and preside. The annual reports of the officers of the church will be presented.

In Full Operation.

At the East End plant of the American Sewer Pipe company this morning the second large press was started, which was expected to be started yesterday. This places the factory in full operation. All the pressers are at work and all is hustle about the big plant. Some repairs are being made to the kilns, but this work will be completed within a few days.

A Fight Occurred.

The revival meeting last evening at the Neville institute under the direction of the Free Methodists was well attended, but it was stated in the East End this morning that a fight occurred just outside the building, and that black eyes resulted. The names of the interested parties could not be learned.

O. U. A. M. Prospering.

Ohio Valley Council, No. 23, O. U. A. M. will meet this evening, when it s expected that the first and second degrees will be conferred. A number of candidates are to be initiated and the meeting gives promise of being an interesting one. Several applications for membership will be presented.

New K. G. E. Lodge.

Everything is now in readiness to commence active work soliciting membership for the new lodge of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, which it is proposed to locate in the East End. The papers were received last evening, and it will be but a few days until active solicitation commences. It is the opinion of many of the lodge in the ciey that the new East End lodge will be ready to institute within a month or six weeks. A membership at the start of from 50 to 60 members is expected.

Headache

kills, not necessarily suddenly, but SURELY. It preys upon the intellectual powers more than we realize. It consumes the vitality faster than nature can replenish it, and we cannot tell just what moment a temporary or complete aberration of the mind will result. Headache and pain should be promptly removed—but properly. Many pain cures are more harmful than the pain. Beware. If you would be safe, take

Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

"As a result of neuralgia I lost the sight of my right eye, and the pain I have suffered is incomprehensible, being obliged to take opiates almost continually. A friend gave me one of Dr. Miles' Pain Pills and it promptly relieved me. I then purchased a box and now my trouble is gone. They have also cured my daughter of nervous headache, and I heartily recommend them to others."—W. J. CORLEY. Bremond, Texas.

Optical Talks...

Care of the Eye from childhood up to old age. Written especially for the News Review, by P. O Kennedy, the Sixth Street Optician

After the child has reached the age of ten years the danger is in a great measure past—but by this it should not be understood that there is no further need of care. The eye, at all times delicate, is nearly formed about that age and if the sight is perfect then, there is every reason to believe that, with proper care, it will remain so. But what if it is abused? Here, indeed, is the seat of nearly all eye trouble. Straining the eyes by reading in a poor light, reading in a moving car or carriage, compelling the eyes to work on after they have given warning that they are ready to stop—these are the most frequent cause of eye difficulties.

The eyes are frequently misused by reading some of the cheap literature of the times. The very poor books typographically—small print, poorly printed—are frequently a great injury to the eyesight, especially if they are read after night. It cannot be too strongly urged upon parents to lay aside their prejudice against glasses for children. In some cases they are absolutely necessary to the welfare of the future eyesight. Glasses were not invented as a luxury, although some persons appear to think so, and when needed at all they are needed by children even more than by their parents.

Were parents to pay as much attention to the eyes of their children as they do to the other duties of mother and father the children would greatly benefit thereby.

MISS MEREDITH'S PARTY

An Enjoyable Affair Given Prior to Her Departure for School.

Miss Anna Meredith was hostess last evening at a very delightful reception, given to her young friends as a kind of farewell, previous to her leaving for college next week.

Guests to the number of thirty-five were present, and the evening spent in dancing. The lower floor of the Meredith residence had been covered with crash for the occasion. A part of Nowling's orchestra provided the music. The programs were very pretty. They were of white and upon the cover in old English were the hostess' initials "A. M." and the date.

Refreshments were served at midnight. The dining room was especially pretty. From the chandelier, directly over the center of the table long strands of tule, entwined with similax, were festooned to the corners of the spacious board. Carnations were used as a decoration.

The occasion was most enjoyable. Miss Meredith leaves in a few days for a week's stay at Atlantic City, after which she will enter a school in Philadelphia.

PENNSY AND GOULD TRUCE.

Rumor Helped Advance Stocks of Their Interests—New High Records In Some Stocks.

New York, Sept. 11.—For the most part the tendency of yesterday's market was irregular, though opening considerable strength, which was well maintained until the late hour. About that time rumors of the serious illness of Russell Sage caused a selling movement in the Gould stocks, the remainder of the list being sympathetically affected. Conditions as a whole favored higher prices. London reported a strong tone for Americans, another gold importation was announced, call money, though nominally as high as 9 per cent, was actually hardly higher than 7 per cent, crop news was encouraging and early advices told of a truce between the Pennsylvania and Gould interests.

Largely as a result of these last rumors, and aided by clever manipulation, Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio, whose interests are virtually identical, advanced over a point each and the Gould stocks also gained.

United States Steel shares were taken up, the common being extensively traded in. There were also movements in other stocks. Among the features of the last hour were recessions in Baltimore and Ohio and some other stocks. The selling movement wiped out the greater part of the day's gains and in some instances caused net losses.

President Roosevelt is no politician. He is something better—a typical, whole-hearted, whole-souled American. Whether he mingles with the Four Hundred of New York, a place among whom is his by inheritance; with the farmers, fishermen and manufacturers of New England; with the cowboys of the west; with the planters of the south; with the Locomotive Firemen; with union or confederate veterans, he is equally at home, and equally welcome. He is a broad-minded, liberal man; a man whose views are outspoken and never veiled. All may not agree with him, but none can fail to admire him. The old-fashioned description, "a gentleman and a scholar," fits him admirably, and the more the people come to know him the more his popularity increases.

McKinley Memorial day will be widely observed next Sunday. The governors of several states besides Ohio have issued proclamations calling attention to the anniversary of the late president's death and asking that appropriate services be held on that date. The response will be general.

"A highly elastic India rubber platform" is what the New York Sun calls the Johnson production in Ohio. No other kind could be made to cover all sorts of Democracy, and it is extremely doubtful if this one can.

Arkansas has gone Democratic, and the party organs will have to turn there for comfort, unable, even by the most laborious processes, to figure out Democratic gains in Maine.

St. Louis should save that oath-bound secret society of Democratic boodlers to exhibit at its World's Fair. The best way would be to keep its members safe in jail until they are wanted as a show attraction.

Uncle Sam has $574,000,000 of gold on hand, and the fact worries the Democrats. But it is less bothersome to manage than a deficit, which doubtless would have existed had Bryan been elected in 1900.

The Haitian admiral who blew up his ship and went down with it is the sort of hero his enemies delight to see. He is a dead hero.

What is the matter with St. Louis as a field for missionary workers?

The president insists that only courageous honesty is good. But without courage, honesty would not long exist.

It is announced that Senator Hanna will tour the state, accompanied by speakers of national reputations.

American exports more than keep pace with the progress of the country.

There are to be golf tournaments in China. What next?

OBITUARY

Wm. Burns.

William Burns, a former member of the undertaking firm of Burns & McQuilken, of Salineville and East Liverpool, died suddenly of apoplexy at Salineville at 8 o'clock last night. He was 47 years of age, and is survived by a wife and one son. Mr. Burns just entered a restaurant at Salineville a few minutes before his death for the purpose of getting a lunch. He fell from his seat and was taken to his home, directly across the street. He died a few minutes later. Undertaker Clem McQuilken left East Liverpool on the midnight train for Salineville where he will take charge of the remains and burial of his late partner.

The deceased was well known in this city where he had many friends during his residence here. Salineville was his home and a few months ago he severed his connection with the firm of Burns & McQuilken and continued a business in the same line at Salineville, which was formerly conducted by the firm. No funeral arrangements have been made.

J. B. Leatherby.

J. B. Leatherby, aged about 55 years, died Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock, of kidney trouble, at his home in New Somerset, Jefferson county. His wife survives. He was very well known in this city, having many friends in East Liverpool and several relatives in Wellsville. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock this morning from the First Christian church at New Somerset, and was attended by H. C. Hale and family of Wellsville, who was a nephew. The interment was in the New Somerset cemetery.

PRESIDENT AT OYSTER BAY.

Storer, Tower and Others Being Considered For Ambassador to Germany.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 11.—President Roosevelt returned from his southern tour yesterday afternoon. The Sylph, on which he came from New York, arrived here at 4:50 p. m The president was accompanied by Secretary Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Loeb, Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel Roosevelt. The last three joined him in New York. The president was pretty well tired out and retired at an early hour. Secretary Cortelyou went to his home in Hempstead.

It was authoritatively denied last night that the United States government has sounded the German government as to the appointment of Bellamy Storer, at present minister to Spain, as the successor to Andrew D. White, as American ambassador to Germany. It can be stated, by the same authority, that the successor to Mr. White has not yet been selected. The name of Mr. Storer is being considered, as is also that of Mr. Tower, the present ambassador to Russia. Several others, well known in diplomatic circles, are under consideration. It is expected that the new ambassador will be announced in a few days.

President Roosevelt will make no more appointments to receive visitors before going on his western trip, which begins on Sept. 19. He will devote the time between now and then in preparing for the trip and in disposing of accumulated business. This will not interfere with the reception to his friends and neighbors of Nassau county, arranged for the 15th inst. The hours of the reception will be from 3 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon. The citizens are making great preparations for the event.

Character in Drug Stores.

In no line of business has character such an opportunity as in a Drug Store. No one but the druggist knows whether the medicine contains all that was prescribed. NEW YARDS IN WEST END will be allowed to pass each other at this point, and the siding that has been used for this purpose at the Thompson pottery can be used for other purposes. Frequently passenger trains are held on this siding to wait the coming of trains from the west, but now these trains can come to this city, unload their passengers, and if sidings are to be used between this city and Wellsville, the new sidings at the West End can be used.

Contractor Stringer has three large derricks in use on this improvement, and it may be that another will be erected in a short time. One of these derricks is being used in the excavating, one in taking the stone from the old abutments, while the third is used for general purposes. All the derricks are being painted red. Offices have been established at the improvement, in which plans, surveys, materials and instruments are kept. This is done at all places where prolonged railroad improvements are being made. Quite a large force of men is employed, from skilled labor, such as stone masons and engineers, to laborers.

In proposing to double track the road east of the passenger station a perplexing problem is presented to the railroad company, or at least might seem so to the general public. While it is a known fact that the railroad company owns property for quite a distance back north of the tracks, it does not own the land upon which the Ohio abutment of the East Liverpool bridge is built. What will be done when the company is ready to construct its second track in that vicinity will be interesting. It is to be generally supposed that the railroad company and the bridge company will enter into an amicable agreement, but at all events some change will have to be made in the Ohio abutment of the bridge. This matter has been talked over by a number of persons interested in the bridge and also in the work the railroad company proposes to do in this vicinity, but the ultimate outcome of this one question is being awaited with interest. It may be that the railroad company will be compelled to stand all the expense of making the changes in the Ohio abutment, and moving the anchors of the bridge further north.

AT THE THEATER

"Mr. Plaster of Paris" one of the most popular of those light frothy, fun making creations is playing to record breaking houses everywhere. The production is wonderfully enjoyable and away from the conventional. The comedy is devoid of ancient ideas, there are pretty girls, unctuous comedians, splendid specialties and together with a lot of bright music combine to form a diverting entertainment. At the Grand next Monday night.

One on the College Man.

"Say," said the short, stout man, "I want to know something. You know there are lots of dialects in the United States and lots of funny words, and I can't tell what is right and what isn't. Now, for instance, one of those Reubens from down east was showing me his turnout, and he spoke of 'that air horse' and 'this 'ere wagon.'"

"That's wrong, awful bad form," interjected the young man fresh from college who had been listening intently for a chance to display his wisdom.

"Well, then," replied the stout man, with the satisfied twinkle of a successful plotter, "I suppose I can't say that I don't like that air from you open window on this car."

"Oh, come on! The lunch is on me again," said the college man as the office clock struck an even dozen and the pretty typewriter gave a convulsive choke.—New York Tribune.

NEW SIDEWALKS

Are Being Laid By Property Owners on a Number of Streets.

The resolutions recently passed by council authorizing property owners to lay sidewalks in front of property facing on Liverpool street, Commerce street, Fourteenth street, Clark avenue, Sixth street, Seventh street and Kelly avenue seems to have taken effect, as new sidewalks are now being placed on both sides of all of these streets.

The resolutions require that the walks be laid at once, and it is supposed that property owners are in haste for this reason.

Lisbon, Fourth, Commerce and Kelly avenue have already been paved, and the balance of them are either being paved or will be paved in the near future.

When the sidewalks have all been laid and the streets paved they will be in first-class condition. The resolutions were passed for this purpose and not because council wishes to impose upon the people.

SUING HER HUSBAND

The case of Mrs. Stephen Kolna against her husband to recover $250 which she claims that she expended for household necessities which he should have paid for, was given a hearing this morning before 'Squire Haney.

Attorney W. F. Lones represented the plaintiff, while Judge P. M. Smith conducted the case for the defendant.

Miss Olive Swearingen, the only daughter of Mrs. Kolna, was the witnessin the case and gave damaging testimony against the defendant to the effect that he had refused to support his wife.

It is said that Barr insulted a lady friend of Jones' with the result that the two men started to fight, but were interrupted by the police who arrested Barr. He was landed in the city jail and will be given a hearing before the mayor this afternoon. Jones wass allowed to go free, but may yet be placed under arrest.

Not Satisfied With Code.

Mayor Fogo and Solicitor Boyd returned from Columbus this morning, having been away since yesterday morning. They report the code bill, as at present arranged, very unsatisfactory as it requires a host of city office holders for every city that are unnecessary and only makes additional expense. They think this clause in the code will be re-arranged, however, so that only the larger cities will require these extra officials.

Old Belfry Stands.

Work on the steeple of the U. P. church in this city is now about completed, but instead of a new belfry and modern steeple being put up, the old belfry has been allowed to remain and the old top piece of the steeple has been placed upon it, making the building look entirely different. They will be repainted. W. C. Breedlaw quickly did his work and received $100 for tearing down the most dangerous part of the steeple.

NOT A MURDERER

BIG SIX IS QUIETLY BLACKING SHOES IN ALLIANCE.

Is Not Wanted in Pennsylvania And Has Not Been There—Fake Exposed.

"Big Six" Johnson, a notorious character and former resident of East Liverpool, is not a fugitive from justice charged with the shooting and probable murder of Robert Gilmore at Finleyville, Pa., on Tuesday afternoon.

With glaring headlines a local evening paper published a story to the contrary yesterday. At the central police station last evening the hot air artist who compiled the fabrication was the topic of conversation. The voices all chimed in that it was purely a fake and was written without the least foundation.

'Tis true that East Liverpool's "Big Six" is out of the city and that he bears a reputation that would not bar any from believing the worst report of him, but a man should not be stamped upon simply because he is down.

"Big Six" is now in Alliance, not attempting in any manner to elude the police. He is working at a shoe stand and is not worrying in the least about being arrested upon a murder charge. Officer Mahoney while en route home yesterday from Canton, where he lodged "Zip" Farmer in the workhouse, stayed in Alliance a few minutes, and states that the first man he met upon leaving the train was the notorious "Big Six."

"I shook hands with him and held quite a conversation with him," said the officer. "He took me to a barber shop at my request and inquired about his acquaintances in this city. He stated that he would be here on a visit in the near future."

The president of the board, Mr. Allison, however, says: "The people ought to be satisfied. The board has done what it thought was right. If the patrons of the school are not suited with our management let them get a new school board."

Glee Club Concert.

The Anthracite Glee club gave its last concert at Rock Springs park last night. Mr. Marz, temporary leader of the famous Rocerto orchestra, stated that the miners' music is excellent, yet the audience was not as large as it might have been. The miners have not received the support expected, in spit of the fact that the money made by the musicians goes to pay the living expenses of the strikers. The club will probably give a series of street concerts in East Liverpool.

OFFICERS SUSPENDED

CHIEF THORN LAYS OFF TWO WELLSVILLE POLICEMEN.

Accused of Visiting Disorderly Houses When They Should Be on Duty.

Chief Thorn on Tuesday evening suspended Officers Davis and Marshall, of the local police force, for an indefinite period.

The officers, it is said, did not report for duty Tuesday at the usual time and as a result Chief Thorn and Officer Houser began a search for them and found them in a disorderly house on Second street asleep in bed. The officers gave no explanation for their action and were then suspended by the chief.

When Mayor Fogo returned from Columbus this morning he was asked what he would do with the officers. He only stated that he would make an investigation and see what should be done. For the present time City Building Officer Elliott will cover one of the beats, while the other will be covered by ex-Officer Henthorn.

Officer Davis has gone to Pittsburg and will remain there for a few days, while Marshall still remains in the city. They have nothing to say regarding the matter accept to admit that they have been suspended by the chief.

The public opinion is that Chief Thorn took the proper action under the circumstances, and that the police force should be reorganized.

The story is now the topic of general conversation, as the officers have been very popular heretofore and their action comes as a great surprise.

DR. GLADDEN TALKS

NO CHURCH UNION FOR TWO YEARS AT LEAST.

Unusual Scenes Witnessed at Closing of Session—Seven Members Received Into the Conference.

"The most harmonious conference held in the history of the Methodist Protestant church of the Pittsburg district was that which closed at Knoxville M. P. church at Pittsburg," said Rev. W. H. Gladden, president of the conference, to the News Review today. Monday evening there was a great revival at the Knoxville church, at which 24 persons knelt at the altar. Not for years were such scenes witnessed at a conference.

In speaking of the church union, Mr. Gladden said that as the matter was first started in the United Brethren church, most of the preliminary work would fall to that church. However, it will be two years at least before any definite action is taken in this matter. The general conference of the M. P. church will not meet until May 24 at Montgomery, Ala., and in the same city the general conference of the United Brethren church will also meet. It is then that the idea will be talked over and decision reached. "So far the matter is meeing with general favor," said Mr. Gladden, "and it is a most excellent idea."

During the conference seven ministers were received into the Pittsburg conference. Three were from New York, one from Indiana and one from Virginia. Besides these Dr. David Jones, formerly president of Adrian college, and Rev. A. T. Steele, of this city, were also admitted. Still there is room for other ministers in this conference.

In declining to take the First church charge at Allegheny, Rev. A. T. Steele, of this city is going to Waynesburg, Pa., will receive a salary from $500 to $800 less, than if he would have accepted the Allegheny charge. He however pledged his word that he would go to Waynesburg, and refused to consider a higher salary offer from the First church, Allegheny, on this account.

THE TOURNAMENT A BIG SUCCESS

Gun Club and Its Visitors and Friends Had a Day of Fine Sport.

EXCELLENT SCORES MADE

The Prize Winners Announced, Local Talent Coming in For Its Share of the Money—Close of the Interesting Contest.

Only a happy remembrance is left of the second annual tournament of the East Liverpool Gun club under auspicious circumstances at the club grounds in Chester yesterday. The members of the club feel proud of the fact that it was one of the most successful shoots, both financially and socially, that has been pulled off in the state this season.

Among the score of shooters from out of town there were several well advanced in marksmanship. E. F. Haak, of Canton, proved himself to be an expert, winning in every event and first money in five. W. T. Early, of Salem, was a close second, and George Cochran, of Washington, Pa., showed remarkable ability.

Of the local men who participated can be said that, considering their small amount of practice, they made a fine showing. Several prizes were won by them and the majority pulled out of the events a trifle to the good. Barring one feature the events met the approval of the entire contingent. The Magau trap used did not work as was desired. It sent the blue rocks true for the shooters when standing in four places, starting from the left, but in the fifth place they were compelled to shoot every time at the rock which sailed in a direction parallel to their positions. To those who shot quickly this feature was a worry. The trap will be thoroughly repaired before another shoot is held. From the trap were sent over 6,000 rocks, of which there were possibly 3,500 broken.

The following are the members of the local club and all are to be complimented upon their efforts in making the day such a successful one:

R. L. Edmonston, president; Hugh Johnston, vice president; Dr. J. M. Little, captain; R. W. Sample, secretary; W. E. Vodrey, assistant secretary; I. N. Crable, treasurer; George F. Brunt, L. H. Brush, H. E. Bicknell, Dr. F. F. Davis, William M. Foutts, J. W. Hunter, Dr. W. A. Hobbs, William F. Lewis, Dr. L. C. Jackman, E. M. Knowles, A. E. McDonald, J. W. Reese, C. A. Smith, Dr. J. A. Saint, D. H. Yant, J. M. Thompson, Harold Marshall, H. Homer Knowles, John A. Gardner.

In yesterday's issue of the News Review nine of the events were exclusively given with their results, making it necessary only to report the four concluding events. They were as follows:

Tenth event, 15 targets—Kingsbury, 10; Bilsing, 10; Cochran, 14; Besserer, 9; Pills, 10; Saffold, 9; Haak, 12; Russi, 10; Little, 6; Early, 12; Jackman, 14; Foutts, 9; Lewis, 8; Johnston, 10.

Eleventh event, 20 targets—Kingsbury, 12; Bilsing, 16; Cochran, 17; Besserer, 17; Pills, 13; Saffold, 14; Haak, 16; Russi, 13; Crable, 13; Little, 14; Early, 18; Edmonston, 15; Jackman, 16; Lewis, 14; Johnston, 14.

Twelfth event, 10 targets—Kingsbury, 6; Bilsing, 9; Cochran, 6; Besserer, 5; Pills, 8; Saffold, 9; Haak, 9; Russi, 7; Crable, 2; Little, 6; Early, 8; Jackman, 4; Lewis, 4; Johnston, 6.

Thirteenth event, 25 targets—Kingsbury, 14; Bilsing, 20; Cochran, 21; Besserer, 19; Pills, 19; Saffold, 15; Haak, 23; Russi, 18; Crable, 14; Little, 9; Early, 21.

Purses were divided according to the Rose system, and as a result very few escaped without receiving a prize. Those receiving first money in each event were: First event, Cochran, $1.40; second event, Cochran and Haak, each $3.50; third event, Besserer, $5.50; fourth event, Haak, $4.50; fifth event, Early, $2.80; sixth event, Agnew, $3.50; seventh event, Haak, $4; eighth event, Early, $2.90; ninth event, Haak, $5; tenth event, Cochran, $4; eleventh event, Early, $6.25; twelfth event, Haak, $4; thirteenth event, Haak, $7.30.

The $25 average money was divided as follows: Haak, $10; Cochran and Early, $3.75 each; Agnew and Besserer, $2.50 each; Saffold, $2.50.

FAIR EXCHANGE

A New Back For An Old One—How It Is Done In East Liverpool.

Sometimes the back aches with a dull, indescribable feeling making you weary and restless; sometimes pain shoots across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use plastering or rubbing the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. To exchange a bad back for a new and stronger one, follow the example of this East Liverpool citizen.

Mr. Wm. Anderson, of 305 Lisbon street, says: "During the civil war I enlisted and served three years in the Forty-second Ohio infantry. From the exposure during the war I attributed the severe aching and weakness in the loins and muscular rheumatism of recent years which all seemed to center in my kidneys. In the morning when first getting up I was very dizzy until I had moved around for a time and my nervous system became affected, causing a fluttering and fullness around the heart. Seeing an advertisement in the paper I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy and took them. A few doses gave me relief. The improvement was gradual and continued as the medicine got thoroughly into my system. I firmly believe that Doan's Kidney Pills will in every case as they did in mine, prove the justness of the claims made for them."

MEMORY OF M'KINLEY

Idea of Observance of Anniversary of Death Being Taken Up.

SERVICES MANY PLACES SUNDAY

Churches to Hold Them—His Former Pastor, Rev. Dr. Manchester, Suggests That the Day Should Be Observed Perpetually.

Cincinnati, Sept. 11.—Additional responses to inquiries yesterday had been received from governors, members of congress, church dignitaries and others, endorsing the movement for McKinley memorial services in the churches next Sunday. Rev. John M. Schick, President Roosevelt's pastor at Washington, and Rev. Frank M. Bristol, pastor of the church McKinley formerly attended in Washington, both telegraph that they would speak on the life and character of McKinley next Sunday. Archbishop Elder yesterday issued an order that the Litany of the Saints be publicly recited next Sunday after high mass.

Pittsburg, Sept. 11.—Pittsburg and Allegheny ministers of all denominations are most interested in making next Sunday a great memorial to the life and work of the late president, William McKinley. In nearly every church of the two cities memorial services will be held, and since the proclamation of the recorder, announcements were coming in thick and fast of the intention of the ministers to generally observe the day.

Gov. Stone Issued Proclamation.

Harrisburg, Sept. 11.—Governor Stone yesterday issued the following proclamation:

"In accordance with the action of the governor of our neighboring state of Ohio, and as a fitting tribute to the memory of William McKinley, late president of the United States, who was held in such high personal regard by the citizens of our commonwealth, I, William A. Stone, governor of Pennsylvania, recommend that Sunday, Sept. 14, the first anniversary of his death, be reverently observed by the people of this state, and that memorial services be held in the churches of all denominations throughout the commonwealth at the regular hour of worship.

"W. A. Stone,
"Governor of Pennsylvania."

Helena, Mont., Sept. 11.—Governor Toole issued a proclamation yesterday recommending that the churches of all denominations throughout the state shall hold memorial services next Sunday, the first anniversary of the death of President McKinley.

St. Paul, Sept. 11.—Governor Van Sant yesterday issued a proclamation urging that appropriate memorial services be held throughout the state on the anniversary of the death of President McKinley.

Tribute of President's Pastor.

Steubenville, O., Sept. 11.—Rev. Dr. C. E. Manchester, who was President McKinley's pastor, gave out a statement yesterday as follows:

"The American people should perpetually observe in a special manner the anniversary of the death of the lamented McKinley. Without doubt he was the best loved president that this country has ever seen, and our wounded hearts are not yet healed. The luster of his character has grown brighter during the past year. We see how patriotic he was, how pure in thought and action. His every heart beat was for his country. His death was that of a martyr. His life will be an inspiration to brave manhood for all time since we caught a glimpse of his. God help the patient widow, whose great wish is that they may soon be reunited. All praise to Governor Nash for the proclamation. McKinley memorial day should be permanent in our calendar."

All run down! Drilled out, no life, no ambition, no appetite, no hope, discouraged and blue. How familiar those symptoms are. Nearly everyone at some time or other has experienced some or all of them, and worried along trusting to nature alone for recuperation. Maybe a little assistance right now might not only hasten recovery, but prevent a more serious result. Right now is the time to take a cup of Wright's Celery Tea when you first realize your condition to be on the decline, and put a stop to it at once. Drink a cup of the tea tonight and get up ready for your day's duty tomorrow. Continue the treatment a few days and note the brightness and general good feeling which always follows the use of Wright's Celery Tea. Pleasant and agreeable to the most delicate stomach. There often comes a time in the struggle with pulmonary disease when the victim loses heart and gives up hope. The ambition to be up and around gives way before growing weakness, and the sufferer keeps to the bed.

No one who suffers from lung disease should lose heart or give up hope while there is a possibility of cure. In many cases Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured lung "trouble" when the cough was obstinate and deep seated, with hemorrhage, emaciation, night-sweats and general weakness. A great many men and women are living to-day in the full enjoyment of health and happiness who had been "given up" by doctors, but found a perfect and permanent cure in the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

"My wife had hemorrhage of the lungs," writes W. A. Sanders, of Hern, Mason Co., W. Va. "She had ten hemorrhages, and the people all around here said she would never be well again. But she began to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she soon began to gain strength and flesh. After taking ten bottles she was entirely well. Should you think this would do you any good to publish, just use it, and if any one disputes the merits of this almost omnipotent medicine they may enclose self-addressed envelope with stamp, and I will answer, the same as written in this letter."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ECZEMA CURED

—BY—

LIFE PLANT.

Stillwater, O., Nov. 5th, 1898.

Life Plant Co.,

Messrs:—After trying the best physicians and the popular remedies of the day for fifteen years for a stubborn case of Eczema, without being benefited, and as physicians claimed there was no cure for me I had concluded to abandon the use of all medicines, believing my case incurable.

Six years ago, hearing through a friend who had tried it, that LIFE PLANT was a wonderful remedy, I was persuaded to make one more trial. $5 worth of LIFE PLANT cured me and I would not take the disease back to keep for thousands of dollars. I was cured six years ago and the disease does not return.

Since being cured myself I have persuaded a number of my friends who had bad cases of Eczema, to try LIFE PLANT, and it cured in every case; and the best of all is, they stay cured. I have given you herein a plain statement of facts and you are at liberty to publish the same for the benefit of those afflicted. Yours truly,

W. H. HOUK.

My daughter had eczema, has just finished her first bottle, and is almost entirely cured. She will continue its use until it is entirely eradicated from the system.

STRONG EFFORT IS PUT FORTH

School Authorities Trying Hard to Induce Scholars to Attend Regularly.

PUPILS WILL FALL BEHIND

At the beginning of the school year an interesting question presents itself in regard to the regular attendance of the pupils. At this time the foundation for the year's work is laid, and if it be crippled by irregular attendance the pupil falls behind in his work, becomes discouraged, fails in one or more branches, and soon finds himself ready to discontinue his education, with little thought or care for the future.

Supt. Rayman, when seen by a News Review representative today, expressed himself as being very anxious to have the children of the local schools start in and attend regularly. Many parents are of the opinion that a day's absence now and then will amount to little, but this is a most erroneous idea, since the interest in the work is not sustained. Observation and experience teach that over 90 per cent of the pupils who attend regularly win their promotion every year.

Then, too, regular attendance is just as important, and even more so in the first year's work as in any, because with the new experience the child acquires habits of regularity which follow him through the entire course and ultimately through life. The school authorities are especially anxious that the parents shall give the matter their most careful consideration, and see to it that their children are in school every day, and then they can reasonably expect good results.

The last compulsory education law passed by the general assembly of this state provides that "Every parent, guardian or other person having charge of any child between the ages of 8 and 14 years shall send such child to a public, private or parochial school for the full time that the school attended is in session, which shall in no case be for less than 24 weeks; and said attendance shall begin with the first week of the school term unless the child is excused from such attendance by the superintendent of the public schools in city or other districts having such superintendent."

HIGH SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Is Remarkably Good—Freshman Class Largest in City's History.

That the local high school is steadily growing is shown by the recent report made by Supt. R. E. Rayman. The report shows that the freshman class is composed of 109 pupils—51 boys and 58 girls; the sophomore class, 58 pupils—21 boys and 37 girls; junior class, 47—18 boys and 29 girls; senior class 35—10 boys and 25 girls.

This is the largest senior class in the history of the school. By this report it will be seen that there are just 100 boys and 149 girls in the high school. Thus the attendance of the boys is about 68 per cent of the girls, which is a very good showing.

Witnesses in Hiding.

The Pittsburg police authorities were notified yesterday that Levi Allen and his wife, of Steubenville, who are two of the most important witnesses against Joseph E. Allen, under indictment for the murder of Achsah King, had disappeared from their homes and could not be found. Owing to this fact, the trial of Allen, which was to have begun yesterday, has been postponed. Allen's wife was given a divorce in Steubenville yesterday, on the ground that he had threatened her life.

ACCUSED BY UNCLE SAM

Young Man Arrested Charged With Robbing a Postoffice at Newell's Run.

Clarence Bell, aged 18, of Newell's Run, O., was arrested at Ballentyne's clay bank, across the river from Toronto, yesterday morning by Deputy United States Marshal John S. McCallister, of Marietta, on a charge of robbing the postoffice in that town.

Newell's Run is a little country village about 16 miles above Marietta, and the postoffice is in the village store. On the night of July 31, during a terrific storm the store was entered and the postoffice robbed of a quantity of stamps and some money. Young Bell, whose home is a mile away from Newell's Run, was missing after the robbery, and as he had been in trouble on a former occasion, suspicion naturally attached to him.

Bell had received mail at Toronto from his home and until recently had been employed at the Great Western sewer pipe plant. A week ago he left and went to work in the Ballentyne clay mines, across the river. Yesterday morning Marshal McCallister, accompanied by Marshal Murray, made a search for Bell along the West Virginia side and located him. He offered no resistance. He was taken to Steubenville on a trolley car, where he was arraigned before United States Commissioner Finley.

He pleaded not guilty and was remanded to jail under $1,000 bail. His hearing has been set for Wednesday of next week.

C. & P. EXTENSION

Engineers Making a Survey for a Line to Dennison.

Uhrichsville, Sept. 11.—The Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad may connect with the Panhandle line at Dennison in a short time. The farmers living up Healea valley are much interested over the new C. & P. extension through the ridge and down the valley. Engineers have looked over the ground to ascertain the feasibility of a line from the present southern terminus of the C. & P. at Klondike to Dennison. The route will be a direct one, extending in a southerly direction and connecting with the Panhandle at Dennison in the new East End yards and running near the rolling mill. The only hindrance to this extension is a hill a short distance northeast of Dennison. It has been the subject of much discussion. The new route will necessitate the tunneling of that hill. Engineers have looked at this hill with that view in mind.

When the C. & P. was constructed to the coal fields at Klondike the matter of constructing a tunnel was the chief obstacle that delayed further extension. For some time this route is said to have been under consideration. The extension is thought to be an early possibility. The extension will mean the opening of a vast field near Dennison.

The Canton Coal company has already leased the coal land on two farms, while several other farmers have leased their coal to another company.

Brain Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You may prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get the reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's.

MITCHELL AND STONE

Strike Leader and Pennsylvania Governor to Hold Conference on Saturday.

BY THE EXECUTIVE'S INVITATION

Railroad Employes' Committee Drafted Three Arbitration Bills—Stone Willing to Convene Lawmakers, if Assured Bill Will Pass.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 11.—Some important messages passed between the executive mansion at Harrisburg and President Mitchell last night. Mr. Mitchell, who was spending the evening at Harvey's lake, telephoned to this city that he had accepted an invitation from Governor Stone to confer with him at Harrisburg on Saturday. He did not know what matters would be discussed at the conference.

Richardson Bore Messages to Mitchell

Harrisburg, Sept. 11.—Colonel William F. Richardson, keeper of the state arsenal, who was sent by Governor Stone to Wilkesbarre yesterday with a message to President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, returned late last night and reported to the governor at the executive mansion. Colonel Richardson said on his arrival here that his mission was such that he could not disclose anything, and would not even admit that he had gone to see Mitchell or that they had met. He would disclose nothing after leaving the mansion. Governor Stone was even more reticent than Colonel Richardson. All that he could be induced to say was that he was doing everything possible to settle the strike and that he could not predict what would be the result. The governor would not say whether or not he had heard from Mitchell through Colonel Richardson or whether the latter has seen the strike leader.

Committee Drafted Arbitration Bills.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 11.—A committee from the state legislative board of railroad employes of Pennsylvania will go to Wilkesbarre today to meet President Mitchell and the district presidents of the United Mine Workers for the purpose of discussing certain arbitration legislation to be considered by the general assembly if Governor Stone shall call an extra session.

The committee has drafted three bills to be submitted to the mine leaders and if they are approved by them they will be presented to the governor, with a request that he call an extra session for their consideration. The committee in charge of the proposed legislation has been assured by the executive that if he can be satisfied that the legislature would enact legislation that would settle the coal strike and prevent other strikes he will not hesitate to call the legislature together.

The bills which have been prepared by the committee provide for compulsory arbitration in labor disputes, which shall be submitted to boards and commissions to be appointed by the courts and by the governor, and whose decision shall be final. The bills are not yet completed, but drafts have been submitted to several prominent attorneys, who have advised those in charge of the proposed legislation that the measures are not in conflict with the constitution.

The railroad committee consists of Milton T. Robinson, of Harrisburg; William J. Zerby, of Mauch Chunk, and George W. Coyle, of Philadelphia.

Quay Says Strike May Be Issue.

New York, Sept. 11.—Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, returned from New York yesterday from the Adirondacks. He said:

"I saw Senator Platt this morning. I am not here on matters relating to the coal strike. I am on my way to Philadelphia after a vacation. I shall leave on the 4 o'clock train. I do not know when the anthracite strike will end. I have had no conference regarding the strike settlement with any one since I have been in the Adirondacks. The coal strike is not a political issue in Pennsylvania now. There is no telling whether it may be until the campaign begins in earnest."

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 11.—The coroner's jury investigating the cause of death of the Italian union miner, Castelli, when he and Frank Portray were attacked by strikers at Maltby last Monday morning, returned a verdict last evening that the murdered man came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by parties unknown to the jury.

Portay, who sustained serious injuries at the hands of the mob, was able to be present and testified. One of his arms is broken and he is injured internally. Ten men had been arrested by last night, charged with being implicated in the assault on the Italians. They will be given a hearing before Magistrate Pollock today.

Russians Order British Expelled.

Pekin, Sept. 11.—Paul Lessar, the Russian minister here, has advised the Russian commander in Manchuria that the presence of foreigners in Manchuria during the military occupation is objectionable, and he is directed to expel the British imperial customs employes who may be sent to Manchuria to resume charge of the postal service.

AGAIN ATTACKED

ANOTHER SUIT OVER ABRAHAM HARTLEY'S WILL.

Mary Burris And Others Claim Testator's Old Will Was Destroyed By Himself.

Lisbon, September 11.—(Special)—Lina Hartley, of Salineville, has entered suit in common pleas court against Mrs. Mary E. Burris and 35 other heirs of Abraham Hartley, late of Salineville. She asks that the order of the probate court, probating a copy of the destroyed will of Abraham Hartley, be set aside, and the paper be held not to be the last will of the deceased.

She claims that the will was not destroyed after the death of Hartley or after he had become incapable of making a will; but that he revoked and destroyed the will himself.

Miss Hartley and Mrs. Burris would receive a much larger share of the $25,000 estate if no will existed than under the will probated.

NON-SUPPORT CASE

MRS. WILLIAM JACKSON HAS HUSBAND ARRESTED.

An Amiable Agreement Reached Between the Two Before the 'Squire.

Charged with the non-support of his minor child, William Jackson, a kiln drawer employed at Cartwright's pottery, was arrested this morning by Constable Powell and taken before 'Squire McLane.

The affidavit causing his arrest was sworn to by his wife, Edna. She stated that he had grossly neglected their boy, Richard, and that she had tried in every way to settle matters without bringing the case into the hands of the law. After carefully considering the case the 'squire dismissed Jackson upon his promise to make an amicable agreement with his spouse and care for the child in the future.

Following the dismissal Jackson produced papers showing that he is a veteran of the Spanish-American war, and applied to the 'squire to intercede for him in getting a pension. The 'squire will endeavor to get the pension.

Arc Light Bill Attacked.

Columbus, Sept. 11.—(Special)—The state executive committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Locomotive Engineers is here to resist the move to secure the repeal of the Jones arc light bill. An attempt was made in the senate yesterday to get through an amendment which would nullify the effect of this act, but it failed.

books. These would have been returned last evening, but when a call was made at Brotherhood headquarters the offices were closed and the property could not be delivered until today.

A prominent mouldmaker said today: "I never before heard of the limit of the law being given any person found guilty on his first offense. It generally follows that, when a person is found guilty of any infraction of any law, the smallest possible fine is given for the first offense and so on until the limit is reached. But it does not seem to be the same in this case. However, we are satisfied."

The mouldmakers, at their meeting, took preliminary steps to form an independent organization. Temporary officers were named, but no time is set for a future meeting. However, there is every reason to believe that the independent local will have just as large a membership as the former local had.

National Secretary Thomas J. Duffy, when seen at headquarters this afternoon, was asked for a statement concerning the action of the mouldmakers. He said: "That is a matter that I cannot talk about at this time."

JURY LAW ATTACKED

Attorneys at Akron Hold That Present Statutes Are Unconstitutional.

Akron, Sept. 11.—Should the question be raised before Judge Hayden in the common pleas court yesterday be decided according to the contention of the defendants' attorney in the case of David Davis against the B. F. Goodrich company, the jury law under which trials are now held will be declared unconstitutional. The case is one involving $36,000, in damages and until the point raised by the defendant is decided no further hearing in it will be had.

The Toledo decision holding the law governing jury trials in Cuyahoga, Hamilton, Franklin, Lucas, Mahoning and Montgomery counties unconstitutional is the basis for the contention of the attorneys. They claim that if that law was special legislation, then the law governing counties is also special legislation.

19TH YEAR. NO. 215. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1902. TWO CENTS.

WAR IS DECLARED ON SLOT MACHINES

SAYS THEY PLAINLY VIOLATE THE LAW

Forty-five in Operation in East Liverpool Saloons, and Keepers May Be Indicted.

War has been declared on the slot machines in this city. Since the introduction of these devices into the saloons here several months ago many wild and exaggerated rumors have been current as to the steps that would eventually be taken for the ousting of them. Until today there has been no authentic basis for the reports in circulation.

Official action is to be inaugurated against the owners of the machines and also against those who have permitted them to be operated in their places of business. Investigation develops the fact that every one of those implicated in the least in the machines and their operation is likely to be indicted by the next grand jury which convenes on September 22. The ground is that the machines are gambling devices.

The indictments, if found, will be upon what has been allowed to exist in this city up to the present time, and if every machine is not closed, shipped from the city or otherwise disposed of immediately a separate indictment will be asked for every day that they are in operation between the present time and the day that action is taken on them by the jury.

The following inscription placed at the top of the machines, it is said, will give rise for defense if the cases are brought up for trial:

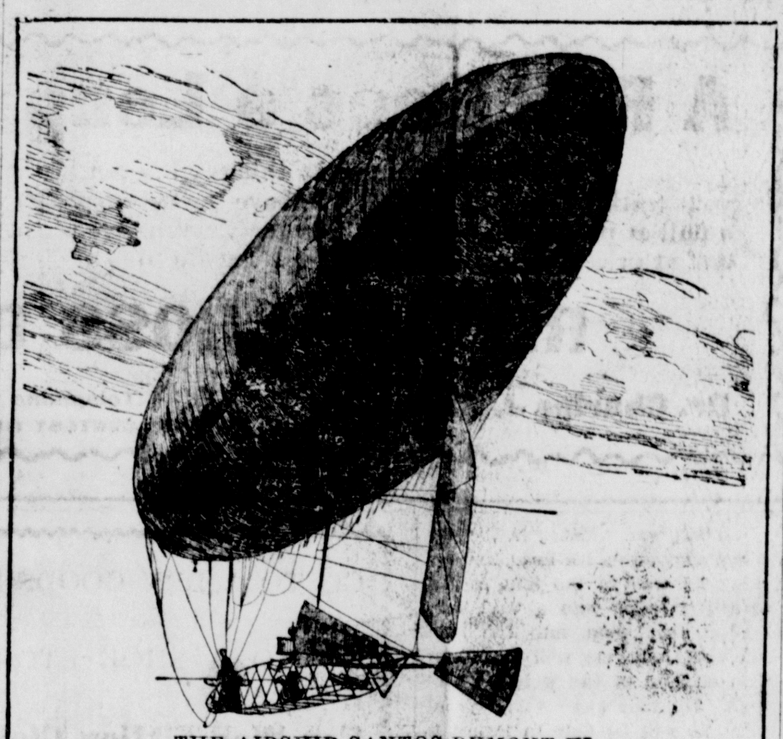

"THIS IS NOT A GAMBLING DEVICE.

"Any person desiring to gamble must not put money in this machine. As a consideration for the use of this Music Machine and the music furnished, it is expressly agreed that any of the nickels which come out in the cup below must and shall be played back into the machine, thereby giving more music."

Prosecuting Attorney Jason H. Brookes when interviewed today, made the following statement:

"I expect to call the attention of the coming grand jury to the case of every slot machine in this city. They are clearly gambling machines, and the musical accompaniments attached to each will not deceive a court.

"I have already evidence in my possession of 45 such machines kept by as many different saloonkeepers. Each day these machines are kept here will lay the foundation for an additional charge. The punishment for each offence is both fine and imprisonment—the fine not more than $500 and not less than $50, and imprisonment in the workhouse or jail, not more than 90 days or less than ten days."

MAYOR TOOK PART IN FOOT RACE

Sebring's Chief Engaged in It to Oblige an Old Friend.

The Ex-Prisoner Hoped to Win—The Mayor Outran Him And There Is Now a Coldness Between the Former Cronies.

It is an impossibility for a man to be mayor and retain all of his friends. At least this is the firm belief of Joseph Gibbon, a former well known potter of East Liverpool, who is now the chief executive of Sebring.

Joe had a friend in the Mahoning pottery town whose name is Charley. The latter is one of the boys, and occasionally gets on a "bat." Last week several days were spent by him in an attempt to consume all the booze both Alliance and Selam could produce. The result was disastrous to Charley, as he not only failed in his attempt to get on the outside of all the liquor at hand, but wound up with a bad case of remorse and an exceedingly bad disposition. So ugly did he become that the authorities finally arrested him.

He was arraigned before Mayor Gibbon. The latter was plainly embarrassed, as he and Charley were the best of friends. In passing sentence the mayor said: 'Charley, I hate to do this, but it is my duty to do so. The law and good order of this community must be upheld, and it is the sentence of the court that you pay a fine of $5.60 on a charge of disorderly conduct."

The money was paid over, but Charley still lingered in the mayor's office. After shifting about in his seat for a short time he finally said: "You and I have been good friends for a long time, Joe, and it is a most unfortunate occurrence that has just taken place. Don't you think you could remit the fine?"

Mayor Gibbon said it would be impossible, but there might be some other way around the embarrassing situation. He said it went against his grain to take his friend's money.

Charley proposed a game of crib, but the mayor thought that would affect his dignity, and several other plans were suggested with the same objectionable features. Finally a foot race was agreed upon, the stakes to be $5 a side. Charley was confident he could win, and if he did he would only be out 60 cents.

The preliminaries were arranged, and the race was won by the mayor. The friend had evidently forgotten that Gibbon had once been a sprinter of some note, as he beat him badly; in fact, Charley had trouble in keeping in sight.

There has been a coldness between the mayor and his former friend ever since, and this was changed to an absolute frost when Charley got word from England, asking about the $10.60 he had lost.

Meantime the magistrate is thinking seriously of resigning his position, since he states he cannot afford to make enemies in that way.

Rev. W. B. Campbell Will Quit the Ministry and Study Medicine.

U. P. PRESBYTERY CALLED

The resignation of Rev. Wm. B. Campbell as pastor of the Calcutta United Presbyterian church fell on the church like a bolt from a clear sky. Not a member of the little country church expected anything of the sort, and to say that the members of the church were surprised is to express their feelings but mildly.

For some time Rev. Mr. Campbell has been considering the idea of leaving the ministry and entering the medical profession. He reached the decision in this matter last week, and consequently presented his resignation to the members of the congregation as pastor. The resignation will take effect one week from next Sunday, and on the morning of that day he will preach his farewell sermon. The congregation has voted to release him.

A meeting of Steubenville presbytery will be held in the First Presbyterian church in this city next Monday for the purpose of taking action upon the resignation of Pastor Campbell. At this time it is impossible to tell who will be the postor of the church at Calcutta. A meeting of the officials of this church will be held soon at which time a list of supplies will be made out. In this way the congregation will be able to hear a new minister indefinitely, and when the members of the church think they have heard a preacher that pleases them, a call will be extended to him to become pastor of the church. This plan is followed in all churches of this denomination and is exactly that which the Second United Presbyterian church in the East End followed.

Rev. W. B. Campbell has been pastor of the Calcutta church for several years, and has a large circle of friends throughout the country district about Calcutta, who are sorry to see him leave.

MOULDMAKERS' LOCAL OUT OF BROTHERHOOD

Mouldmakers' local, No. 22, as a subordinate organization of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, is a matter of hisory. Its connection with the Brotherhood was severed at a meeting held last evening. In fact, one mouldmaker said this morning that they were driven from home.

The final outcome of the meeting last evening and the causes that led up to it created a profound sensation in pottery circles today. The recent meeting of the national executive board, which was held in this city a few days ago, was the closing chapter of a friction that has been of long standing between the local and the Brotherhood.

It appears that the Trenton convention, which was attended by Thomas Harsha, as a delegate of local No. 22, was the beginning of the friction. When the convention ended, Mr. Harsha, the delegate of this local, returned home with other delegates, and at the following meeting of the local, a report of the convention was presented by Mr. Harsha. This was followed by the local passing a resolution in which it was stated that the mouldmakers were satisfied with conditions in their branch of the trade as they existed, and a copy of this resolution was sent to the conference committee of the National Brotherhood before any conference had been held with the committee which represented the Western Manufacturing Potters' association.

A like copy was also sent to all mouldmakers outside the city, and not in any way affiliated with the mouldmakers' local in this city. As is well known, there is hardly a pottery in the city where the work of the mould shop is not done under contract, and at the convention one of the most important discussions was that which referred to the abolishment of this system.

Now it is averred that this resolution, after being read by the National officers, was followed by charges against the mouldmakers by the national officers, in which it was alleged that the local was trying to defeat the ends and purposes of the national officers in trying to enforce the action of the Trenton convention. A trial was the result of these charges, and this was the main cause of the national executive committee being called to this city.

The mouldmakers, at a meeting a short time beforehand, appointed a committee and at the proper time appeared before the executive board. This meeting was held in closed chambers at the national headquarters and no information could be secured at the time from the national officers concerning the meeting or trial. During the trial the committee representing the mouldmakers demanded but two things: Conviction or acquittal.

The result of the trial was never made public by the national officers, although at times rumors had been heard about the outcome.

At the meeting of the mouldmakers last evening a communication was read by Secretary J. G. Mantz, the substance of which was that the local was expelled from the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters. This was followed by the secretary being instructed to return to the national headquarters all property in the possession of the local which belonged to the national organization. This included charter, seals, moneys and

Will Return to This City Very Soon and Be Placed Under Bond.

Albert McIntosh has been located. He will arrive in the city within the next 48 hours and quietly walked into the office of Squire H. P. McCarron, there to answer to the charge preferred against him.

Contrary to announcements published from police headquarters he is now and has been since last Monday morning with his wife in the vicinity of New Matamoras, visiting relatives.

James C. McIntosh, father of Albert, is responsible for the statement. He appeared before Squire McCarron yesterday afternoon; gave the information as to his son's location, and then made arrangements for a bond that will cover any amount that might be required by the squire, provided he sees fit to bind the young man over to the grand jury.

The elder McIntosh said: "I did not know definitely for several days where my son was, but was positive he had gone down the river. I now know that he is visiting relatives near New Matamoras, and that he will return to give himself up before Sunday."

Just why the fugitive has kept himself in seclusion when it would be possible for him to get bond for several thousand dollars is not known. It was likely due to his fear of being tried on a murder charge, and even a man well backed financially does not covet such a position.

Constable Charles Gill is out of town and it is supposed that he has gone after McIntosh.

Albert Thompson, the young man who was cut while a dance was in progress near Calcutta last Saturday evening, was to be brought to his home in this city today. His condition is much improved, and it is now thought that he will entirely recover from the injuries he received during the fight.

FENDERS FOR ALL CARS

Within 30 days all the cars of the East Liverpool Railway company will be equipped with fenders. This was the statement of Supt. Thompson, of the United Power company, this morning. It will be remembered that the exclusive announcement was made in this paper several weeks ago that the company was experimenting with a fender which was invented by Mr. Thompson and made at the power house by Morris Baxter, chief engineer of the company, and was given a thorough trial by being placed on car No. 39, a summer car. It has proved what has been claimed for it, and is one of the most satisfactory fenders ever invented.

Many of these fenders are now being made at the power house, and the work of placing them on the cars will commence shortly. On the double truck cars there will be a fender at each end, while on the smaller cars, a fender will be placed at one end only. A fender is to be placed on each end of the cars operated on the Calcutta road branch.

Democratic State Convention.

Columbus, Sept. 11.—(Special)—The State Democratic Committee completed its organization yesterday by electing A. P. Sandals, a newspaper man of Ottawa, as secretary. It was decided to assess each candidate on the state ticket, excepting Rev. Herbert Bigelow, of Cincinnati, who aspires to be secretary of state, $1,000. Mr. Bigelow's services on the stump will be accepted in lieu of an assessment.

Ex-Mayor Magowan, of Trenton, Has None of Those $2,000,000 Left.

Reports from the east state that Frank A. Magowan, former mayor of Trenton, ex-president of the Trenton Potteries company and known to some in this city, is now practically penniless. Only seven years ago his wealth was estimated at $2,000,000. Magowan's first wife, from whom he was divorced to marry the divorced wife of Mr. Barnes, after a hard struggle with poverty has been appointed to a position as copyist in the chancery court in Trenton.

Magowan began life as a newsboy. He had been elected mayor of Trenton before he met Mrs. Barnes. Now his millions, his business, his beautiful $500,000 home and special trains, his horses and carriages, are said to have vanished. Magowan scattered money with a lavish hand while it lasted, but luck did not stay with him, and during recent court proceedings he swore he was penniless.

Four Tracks Across Carpenter's Run Bridge and What They Mean.

While much has been said and more written about the improvements that are to be made about this city by the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad the exact facts or the intentions of the company have not yet been told. The story of the company securing rights of way through the city for an additional track or tracks, reports of contracts for excavating being asked, and all that sort of thing, have been written about, but exactly what the company is now doing has never been told.

When the railroad company sent a pile driver to this city several weeks ago to do some work in the vicinity of the flint mill, little was thought at the time of the enlarged freight yards that the company proposed to build in this city. This work is now under way, but it will be January before the contracts are completed. Of course the main point in view is the double tracking of the road at this spot and this is to be done at once.

The work of taking down the stone work of the bridge at the flint mill is now under way, and the trenches have been dug on the east side of the bridge for the east abutment to the bridge. The bottom of this trench is just six feet below the bed of Carpenter's run, and from the tracks to the bottom of the trench it is about 40 feet. When this new bridge is completed it will contain four tracks. Two of the tracks will be used for main line purposes, and the other two for siding purposes. An official of the railroad company made this statement yesterday afternoon.

When the four tracks are completed it will mean that the freight yards or storage tracks on the West End will have been enlarged. Freight trains

FIXED AT TEN MILLS

A Most Important Clause Limiting Aggregate City Tax Levy.

Columbus, Sept. 11.—(Special)—The senate passed a number of sections of the administration code yesterday. The most important one was the clause limiting the aggregate tax levy in any municipal corporation in any one year, exclusive of the levy for county and state purposes, for schools, sinking fund and interest, to ten mills.

Senator Archer offered an amendment to increase the aggregate levy to 12 mills, but later withdrew it. The levy may be increased upon a two-thirds vote.

CONGRESSMEN COMING

Rivers and Harbors Committee to Visit Pittsburg and the Ohio River.

Pittsburg, September 11.—A conference was held yesterday by Captains W. B. Rodgers, S. S. Brown and John F. Dravo in regard to the congressional rivers and harbors committeemen's visit to Pittsburg tomorrow and Saturday. The Monongahela House will be headquarters and the main inspection up the Monongahela river will be made tomorrow. The local government engineer will accompany the party, which will include also representatives of the Pittsburg chamber of commerce.

Congressman T. E. Burton, chairman of the rivers and harbors committee, has not notified Captain Dravo what other members will be here. Captain Brown's yacht Trobadour will be used for the inspection trips.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

MAKING GRATE FILLING.

While the fact is known to but a few in this city, a local manufacturer has been making orders for gas grates for a Pittsburg stove firm for about a year. Who is there who has not seen a gas grate filled with clay potatoes and the like? But to have a grate filled with something that resembles a doughnut is new. These are made in this city, at one plant, and in remarkably large quantities. The Pittsburg firm so far this season has placed an order for 25,000 of these pieces, and the first order is now being filled, but it is expected that from now until cold weather ends, the order will have been increased to at least 100,000 pieces. The orders for last winter amounted to about 75,000 pieces. The making of these fillers, as they might properly be called, is interesting. A piece of sagger clay is taken, which has been thoroughly rolled in sawdust. It is then batted out to a certain thickness The tin cutter is then applied to the clay, and then you have something that resembles the doughnut that mother used to make. This small piece of clay is then pressed slightly in the hand, sufficient to show the marks of the finger, and when dried to a certain extent is placed in a kiln, but not in a sagger. In burning these small pieces of clay the sawdust is consumed, and when they are taken from the kiln they are very hard, but they are so light they weigh but a few ounces. The order is a profitable one, and contracts have been signed for several years ahead.

FIRST KILN OF TOPS.

The Cone Fire Clay company, of this city, whose business is confined to the making of chimney tops, at the plant of the East Liverpool Sagger company, yesterday drew its first kiln of tops. The kiln was partially filled with saggers, and it cannot be said that the first kiln was made with success. The mine where the company secured its clay at Salineville was sold, and the local company could not obtain a shipment of this clay. Another mine was opened near the former by another company, and the first car of clay received here was not like that taken from the old mine. The miners are still working, however, and the next shipment of clay will be of the same standard as was used at Salineville. It was also said the tops were placed in the kiln while they were too wet, and being fired with a quantity of saggers was another drawback. Some of the tops taken from the kilns yesterday were of an excellent quality, and these will be shipped at once. The company will probably not fire tops and saggers at the same time again. W. A. Weaver, of Washington street, is the manager of the chimney top department of this plant, and has been associated with that business for many years. That he will have a good quality of clay on hand before the next kiln of tops is fired is a certainty. His company is receiving orders daily, and enough are on hand at present to keep several pressers at work for many months. At present no stock will be made, and all the tops that are made will be shipped at once. About six different designs of tops are being made by this firm.

THE CROOKSVILLE PLANT.

The starting of the new pottery at Crooksville will be awaited with interest by pottery workers in this city, partially on account of a number of local people who will no doubt be employed there and because William Tritt, formerly of this city, is to manage the plant. The clay shops and mould shops will be located on the second floor and on the lower floor will be the clay bins, slip house and green house. The kiln shed and dipping house will be one story. The glost warehouse and decorating shop will be on a level with the kiln shed. Five kilns, three glost and two bisque, will be the capacity of the plant. It will operate four decorating kilns also. Mr. Tritt stated that he would be very careful in selecting his shapes and has two toilet sets modeled and one dinner set being finished. The sagger clay arrived last week and the saggermaker will commence at once. The mouldmaker will start perhaps this week and by engaging three or four assistants can soon have the shop filled with saggers The plant will have sufficient capacity to steam heat the entire plant. A 100 horse power engine has been purchased and placed in operation for the purpose of giving power. Instead of the customary iron stacks for draught the company have erected two large brick stacks. Mr. Tritt stated they were aware of the fact that the expense was great at present, but it proves the cheapest in the long run.

NO SHOW IN SIGHT.

The western potters would like to have a full display of American pottery manufacturers at the St. Louis Exposition in 1904, says a Pittsburg trade paper. American ceramics have not been exhibited to advantage at any international exposition since the one held in Chicago, and the clay industries would certainly benefit by such a display at the St. Louis Exposition. Some East Liverpool ware was exhibited at the Buffalo show, but the expense of this sort of advertising could have been spent to better advantage in other channels, so most manufacturers think.

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT.

William Cuthbert, bench boss on the glost end at the Brunt pottery, met with an unfortunate accident Tuesday. Mr. Cuthbert was walking in the kiln with two saggers on his head, and not thinking he was in the kiln so far, accidently stepped into a well hole, His right foot went into the hole and he could not very well catch himself on account of the weight of the saggers. His foot was severly sprained, and he will be able to return to work in a few days. He resides on May street.

AT WORK EXCAVATING.

The work of excavating for the proposed improvements to the West End pottery is progressing rapidly, the contract for this work having been let to McLaughlin Brothers. A large force of men are employed in this work, and it is expected their contract will be completed within a week. The improvement to the pottery will be rushed as fast as it is possible to do so, and it is thought, with everything in the firm's favor, the new addition will be completed within three months. This new addition will cost several thousand dollars, and everything therein will be modern in every particular.

ITS OUTPUT SOLD.

It is not often that the output of a factory is sold just when a new shop commences business, but this is the case with the East Liverpool Sagger company. Is is announced that this company, just before it commenced business, entered into contracts to keep several of the largest potteries in the city supplied with saggers, and for that reason, no saggers are being made for stock. The company just a day or so ago, received an order for a carload of saggers, and the order is now being filled. In fact, this shop is filling orders just as they come in, but at the same time keeping contracts with the firms in this city.

KILNMAN INJURED.

Mason Reed, of First avenue, a glost kilnman at Laughlin No. 2, met with an accident this morning that will prohibit him from working for several days. He was carrying a sagger up the steps into the kiln when his foot slipped, allowing the saggger to fall from his head and striking his left arm. He went to the office of a physician and although no bones were found to be broken, the arm was found bruised considerably.

TOOK SOME HUSTLING.

The New Castle China company has been compelled to hold over in getting out new dinner ware. A short time ago it completed a very large order for the Duquesne Club, of Pittsburg, and now it is said has a contract with the state of Texas to supply all its public institutions. It is possible that the company may be able to start on its shape some time during the latter part of the fall.

JERSEY CHARTER OBTAINED.

The Barberton Pottery company secured incorporation papers at Trenton Monday. The capital stock of the concern is placed at $150,000, and from announcements in eastern papers, the incorporation was secured through one of the Jersey city agencies. The incorporators are: P. E. Whittemore, H. E. Andrews, F. M. Atterholt. The company is to operate a pottery.

WANT A PACKER.

Within the past two days another firm in a town not for from this city sent word to this city that is desired a packer to take charge of the shop. So far no one has heard of any person applying for the position, and the prevailing opinion is that all the packers who are employed in this city propose to remain here. The idea is an excellent one.

WATER TANK BURST.

The large water tank at the Crescent pottery at Trenton, used for fire purposes, gave way yesterday morning and let its contents out on the roofs and grounds surrounding it. The damage, except to the tank, is not great. The break is supposed to have been the result of a weak band. The tank will be repaired at once.

AT MILWAUKEE.

Thomas Robinson, general manager of the East Liverpool pottery, a branch of the East Liverpool Potteries company, who has been visiting friends in Milwaukee for several days, is expected home the latter part of this week. This is the first vacation Mr. Robinson has had for some years and his many friends hope he is having an enjoyable trip.

THREE DAYS A WEEK.

The anthracite coal strike is still affecting the plants of the Greenwood China company, at Trenton. They are only working three days a week because anthracite coal is hard to get and bituminous lacks the heating properties necessary to fire the Greenwood company's particular kind of ware.

LARGE MEMBERSHIP.

A local union of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters was organized in Barberton Tuesday night with 75 members. National President A. S. Hughes was assisted by a large delegation of Akron potters in installing the union. This union is the ninth union to be installed in the last three months.

ONE PRINTER ON.

There seems to be a shortage of ware at the East Liverpool pottery, and it is announced that but one printer is working. It has been many months since there has been a shortage of ware at this plant, but this is a condition that always exists at a pottery at some time or another.

TEMPORARY QUARTERS.

The Crescent pottery of the Trenton Potteries company will soon resume operations. A frame structure has been erected in the yard and will be used as a packing shed until a new one is built.

TRANSFERER ILL.

Owing to the serious illness of one of the members of his crew, the others and Edward Hatton, a printer at the Wallace & Chetwynd pottery, did not work yesterday.

The recent wreck on the Monongahela division of the Pittsburg Railway company in which a car crashed into a house near Brown's Bridge, was read with more than usual interest by street railway employes residing in the East End. This runaway car was in charge of Motorman John Porter, who formerly resided at Ralston Crossing, near the power house, and who for several years was employed on the East Liverpool railway as motorman and conductor. Porter was unable to check the speed of his car as it was descending the hill, and when it crashed into a house and injured about a dozen persons, Porter sustained a deep cut in his lip, and was otherwise bruised.

That same day Porter left the employ of the company and has not been seen since, although it was said the accident was no fault of his, and this was verified by the passengers on the car, who said that he could not get his brakes to work. A day or so later Porter was seen on a train passing through this city, and it is presumed by his friends here that he was on his way to Cleveland.

Wright vs. Hays.

Before a jury in the court of Justice L. W. Carman in the East End last evening the case of Wright against Hays was tried. The amount involved was but $30.40, for work and labor, but it was decided by the jury that the contract was not completed and that the amount claimed was not yet due. Just as soon as the contract is completed the money will be paid to the plaintiff.

Quarterly Conference.

The last quarterly conference of the conference year will be held this evening at the Erie street M. E. church on Pennsylvania avenue. All arrangements have been completed and the meeting is expected to be largely attended. Dr. Charles E. Manchester, of Steubenville, will be present and preside. The annual reports of the officers of the church will be presented.

In Full Operation.

At the East End plant of the American Sewer Pipe company this morning the second large press was started, which was expected to be started yesterday. This places the factory in full operation. All the pressers are at work and all is hustle about the big plant. Some repairs are being made to the kilns, but this work will be completed within a few days.

A Fight Occurred.

The revival meeting last evening at the Neville institute under the direction of the Free Methodists was well attended, but it was stated in the East End this morning that a fight occurred just outside the building, and that black eyes resulted. The names of the interested parties could not be learned.

O. U. A. M. Prospering.

Ohio Valley Council, No. 23, O. U. A. M. will meet this evening, when it s expected that the first and second degrees will be conferred. A number of candidates are to be initiated and the meeting gives promise of being an interesting one. Several applications for membership will be presented.

New K. G. E. Lodge.

Everything is now in readiness to commence active work soliciting membership for the new lodge of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, which it is proposed to locate in the East End. The papers were received last evening, and it will be but a few days until active solicitation commences. It is the opinion of many of the lodge in the ciey that the new East End lodge will be ready to institute within a month or six weeks. A membership at the start of from 50 to 60 members is expected.

After the child has reached the age of ten years the danger is in a great measure past—but by this it should not be understood that there is no further need of care. The eye, at all times delicate, is nearly formed about that age and if the sight is perfect then, there is every reason to believe that, with proper care, it will remain so. But what if it is abused? Here, indeed, is the seat of nearly all eye trouble. Straining the eyes by reading in a poor light, reading in a moving car or carriage, compelling the eyes to work on after they have given warning that they are ready to stop—these are the most frequent cause of eye difficulties.

The eyes are frequently misused by reading some of the cheap literature of the times. The very poor books typographically—small print, poorly printed—are frequently a great injury to the eyesight, especially if they are read after night. It cannot be too strongly urged upon parents to lay aside their prejudice against glasses for children. In some cases they are absolutely necessary to the welfare of the future eyesight. Glasses were not invented as a luxury, although some persons appear to think so, and when needed at all they are needed by children even more than by their parents.

Were parents to pay as much attention to the eyes of their children as they do to the other duties of mother and father the children would greatly benefit thereby.

MISS MEREDITH'S PARTY

An Enjoyable Affair Given Prior to Her Departure for School.

Miss Anna Meredith was hostess last evening at a very delightful reception, given to her young friends as a kind of farewell, previous to her leaving for college next week.

Guests to the number of thirty-five were present, and the evening spent in dancing. The lower floor of the Meredith residence had been covered with crash for the occasion. A part of Nowling's orchestra provided the music. The programs were very pretty. They were of white and upon the cover in old English were the hostess' initials "A. M." and the date.

Refreshments were served at midnight. The dining room was especially pretty. From the chandelier, directly over the center of the table long strands of tule, entwined with smilax, were festooned to the corners of the spacious board. Carnations were used as a decoration.

The occasion was most enjoyable. Miss Meredith leaves in a few days for a week's stay at Atlantic City, after which she will enter a school in Philadelphia.

PENNSY AND GOULD TRUCE.

Rumor Helped Advance Stocks of Their Interests—New High Records In Some Stocks.

New York, Sept. 11.—For the most part the tendency of yesterday's market was irregular, though opening considerable strength, which was well maintained until the late hour. About that time rumors of the serious illness of Russell Sage caused a selling movement in the Gould stocks, the remainder of the list being sympathetically affected. Conditions as a whole favored higher prices. London reported a strong tone for Americans, another gold importation was announced, call money, though nominally as high as 9 per cent, was actually hardly higher than 7 per cent, crop news was encouraging and early advices told of a truce between the Pennsylvania and Gould interests.

Largely as a result of these last rumors, and aided by clever manipulation, Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio, whose interests are virtually identical, advanced over a point each and the Gould stocks also gained.

United States Steel shares were taken up, the common being extensively traded in. There were also movements in other stocks. Among the features of the last hour were recessions in Baltimore and Ohio and some other stocks. The selling movement wiped out the greater part of the day's gains and in some instances caused net losses.

President Roosevelt is no politician. He is something better—a typical, whole-hearted, whole-souled American. Whether he mingles with the Four Hundred of New York, a place among whom is his by inheritance; with the farmers, fishermen and manufacturers of New England; with the cowboys of the west; with the planters of the south; with the Locomotive Firemen; with union or confederate veterans, he is equally at home, and equally welcome. He is a broad-minded, liberal man; a man whose views are outspoken and never veiled. All may not agree with him, but none can fail to admire him. The old-fashioned description, "a gentleman and a scholar," fits him admirably, and the more the people come to know him the more his popularity increases.

McKinley Memorial day will be widely observed next Sunday. The governors of several states besides Ohio have issued proclamations calling attention to the anniversary of the late president's death and asking that appropriate services be held on that date. The response will be general.

"A highly elastic India rubber platform" is what the New York Sun calls the Johnson production in Ohio. No other kind could be made to cover all sorts of Democracy, and it is extremely doubtful if this one can.

Arkansas has gone Democratic, and the party organs will have to turn there for comfort, unable, even by the most laborious processes, to figure out Democratic gains in Maine.

St. Louis should save that oath-bound secret society of Democratic boodlers to exhibit at its World's Fair. The best way would be to keep its members safe in jail until they are wanted as a show attraction.

Uncle Sam has $574,000,000 of gold on hand, and the fact worries the Democrats. But it is less bothersome to manage than a deficit, which doubtless would have existed had Bryan been elected in 1900.

The Haitian admiral who blew up his ship and went down with it is the sort of hero his enemies delight to see. He is a dead hero.

What is the matter with St. Louis as a field for missionary workers?

The president insists that only courageous honesty is good. But without courage, honesty would not long exist.

It is announced that Senator Hanna will tour the state, accompanied by speakers of national reputations.

American exports more than keep pace with the progress of the country.

There are to be golf tournaments in China. What next?

OBITUARY

Wm. Burns.

William Burns, a former member of the undertaking firm of Burns & McQuilken, of Salineville and East Liverpool, died suddenly of apoplexy at Salineville at 8 o'clock last night. He was 47 years of age, and is survived by a wife and one son. Mr. Burns just entered a restaurant at Salineville a few minutes before his death for the purpose of getting a lunch. He fell from his seat and was taken to his home, directly across the street. He died a few minutes later. Undertaker Clem McQuilken left East Liverpool on the midnight train for Salineville where he will take charge of the remains and burial of his late partner.

The deceased was well known in this city where he had many friends during his residence here. Salineville was his home and a few months ago he severed his connection with the firm of Burns & McQuilken and continued a business in the same line at Salineville, which was formerly conducted by the firm. No funeral arrangements have been made.

J. B. Leatherby.

J. B. Leatherby, aged about 55 years, died Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock, of kidney trouble, at his home in New Somerset, Jefferson county. His wife survives. He was very well known in this city, having many friends in East Liverpool and several relatives in Wellsville. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock this morning from the First Christian church at New Somerset, and was attended by H. C. Hale and family of Wellsville, who was a nephew. The interment was in the New Somerset cemetery.

PRESIDENT AT OYSTER BAY.

Storer, Tower and Others Being Considered For Ambassador to Germany.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 11.—President Roosevelt returned from his southern tour yesterday afternoon. The Sylph, on which he came from New York, arrived here at 4:50 p. m. The president was accompanied by Secretary Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Loeb, Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel Roosevelt. The last three joined him in New York. The president was pretty well tired out and retired at an early hour. Secretary Cortelyou went to his home in Hempstead.

It was authoritatively denied last night that the United States government has sounded the German government as to the appointment of Bellamy Storer, at present minister to Spain, as the successor to Andrew D. White, as American ambassador to Germany. It can be stated, by the same authority, that the successor to Mr. White has not yet been selected. The name of Mr. Storer is being considered, as is also that of Mr. Tower, the present ambassador to Russia. Several others, well known in diplomatic circles, are under consideration. It is expected that the new ambassador will be announced in a few days.

President Roosevelt will make no more appointments to receive visitors before going on his western trip, which begins on Sept. 19. He will devote the time between now and then in preparing for the trip and in disposing of accumulated business. This will not interfere with the reception to his friends and neighbors of Nassau county, arranged for the 15th inst. The hours of the reception will be from 3 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon. The citizens are making great preparations for the event.

Character in Drug Stores.

In no line of business has character such an opportunity as in a Drug Store. No one but the druggist knows whether the medicine contains all that was prescribed. NEW YARDS IN WEST END will be allowed to pass each other at this point, and the siding that has been used for this purpose at the Thompson pottery can be used for other purposes. Frequently passenger trains are held on this siding to wait the coming of trains from the west, but now these trains can come to this city, unload their passengers, and if sidings are to be used between this city and Wellsville, the new sidings at the West End can be used.

Contractor Stringer has three large derricks in use on this improvement, and it may be that another will be erected in a short time. One of these derricks is being used in the excavating, one in taking the stone from the old abutments, while the third is used for general purposes. All the derricks are being painted red. Offices have been established at the improvement, in which plans, surveys, materials and instruments are kept. This is done at all places where prolonged railroad improvements are being made. Quite a large force of men is employed, from skilled labor, such as stone masons and engineers, to laborers.

In proposing to double track the road east of the passenger station a perplexing problem is presented to the railroad company, or at least might seem so to the general public. While it is a known fact that the railroad company owns property for quite a distance back north of the tracks, it does not own the land upon which the Ohio abutment of the East Liverpool bridge is built. What will be done when the company is ready to construct its second track in that vicinity will be interesting. It is to be generally supposed that the railroad company and the bridge company will enter into an amicable agreement, but at all events some change will have to be made in the Ohio abutment of the bridge. This matter has been talked over by a number of persons interested in the bridge and also in the work the railroad company proposes to do in this vicinity, but the ultimate outcome of this one question is being awaited with interest. It may be that the railroad company will be compelled to stand all the expense of making the changes in the Ohio abutment, and moving the anchors of the bridge further north.

AT THE THEATER

"Mr. Plaster of Paris" one of the most popular of those light frothy, fun making creations is playing to record breaking houses everywhere. The production is wonderfully enjoyable and away from the conventional. The comedy is devoid of ancient ideas, there are pretty girls, unctuous comedians, splendid specialties and together with a lot of bright music combine to form a diverting entertainment. At the Grand next Monday night.

One on the College Man.

"Say," said the short, stout man, "I want to know something. You know there are lots of dialects in the United States and lots of funny words, and I can't tell what is right and what isn't. Now, for instance, one of those Reubens from down east was showing me his turnout, and he spoke of 'that air horse' and 'this 'ere wagon.'"

"That's wrong, awful bad form," interjected the young man fresh from college who had been listening intently for a chance to display his wisdom.

"Well, then," replied the stout man, with the satisfied twinkle of a successful plotter, "I suppose I can't say that I don't like that air from you open window on this car."

"Oh, come on! The lunch is on me again," said the college man as the office clock struck an even dozen and the pretty typewriter gave a convulsive choke.—New York Tribune.

NEW SIDEWALKS

Are Being Laid By Property Owners on a Number of Streets.

The resolutions recently passed by council authorizing property owners to lay sidewalks in front of property facing on Liverpool street, Commerce street, Fourteenth street, Clark avenue, Sixth street, Seventh street and Kelly avenue seems to have taken effect, as new sidewalks are now being placed on both sides of all of these streets.

The resolutions require that the walks be laid at once, and it is supposed that property owners are in haste for this reason.

Lisbon, Fourth, Commerce and Kelly avenue have already been paved, and the balance of them are either being paved or will be paved in the near future.

When the sidewalks have all been laid and the streets paved they will be in first-class condition. The resolutions were passed for this purpose and not because council wishes to impose upon the people.

SUING HER HUSBAND

Wellsville Wife Wants Compensation for Bills Which She Paid.

The case of Mrs. Stephen Kolna against her husband to recover $250 which she claims that she expended for household necessities which he should have paid for, was given a hearing this morning before 'Squire Haney.

Attorney W. F. Lones represented the plaintiff, while Judge P. M. Smith conducted the case for the defendant.

Miss Olive Swearingen, the only daughter of Mrs. Kolna, was the witnessin the case and gave damaging testimony against the defendant to the effect that he had refused to support his wife.

A decision was deferred by Justice Haney until Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Fought On the Street.

A short fight occured last evening on Third street in which a stranger, giving his name as James Barr, and William Jones were implicated. It is said that Barr insulted a lady friend of Jones' with the result that the two men started to fight, but were interrupted by the police who arrested Barr. He was landed in the city jail and will be given a hearing before the mayor this afternoon. Jones wass allowed to go free, but may yet be placed under arrest.

Not Satisfied With Code.

Mayor Fogo and Solicitor Boyd returned from Columbus this morning, having been away since yesterday morning. They report the code bill, as at present arranged, very unsatisfactory as it requires a host of city office holders for every city that are unnecessary and only makes additional expense. They think this clause in the code will be re-arranged, however, so that only the larger cities will require these extra officials.

Old Belfry Stands.

Work on the steeple of the U. P. church in this city is now about completed, but instead of a new belfry and modern steeple being put up, the old belfry has been allowed to remain and the old top piece of the steeple has been placed upon it, making the building look entirely different. They will be repainted. W. C. Breedlaw quickly did his work and received $100 for tearing down the most dangerous part of the steeple.

The wedding was kept very quiet and only the immediate relatives of the couple attended. Mr. and Mrs. Menough left last evening for New York and Atlantic City. They will return in about one week and will go to housekeeping here.

NOT A MURDERER

BIG SIX IS QUIETLY BLACKING SHOES IN ALLIANCE.

Is Not Wanted in Pennsylvania And Has Not Been There—Fake Exposed.

"Big Six" Johnson, a notorious character and former resident of East Liverpool, is not a fugitive from justice charged with the shooting and probable murder of Robert Gilmore at Finleyville, Pa., on Tuesday afternoon.

With glaring headlines a local evening paper published a story to the contrary yesterday. At the central police station last evening the hot air artist who compiled the fabrication was the topic of conversation. The voices all chimed in that it was purely a fake and was written without the least foundation.

'Tis true that East Liverpool's "Big Six" is out of the city and that he bears a reputation that would not bar any from believing the worst report of him, but a man should not be stamped upon simply because he is down.

"Big Six" is now in Alliance, not attempting in any manner to elude the police. He is working at a shoe stand and is not worrying in the least about being arrested upon a murder charge. Officer Mahoney while en route home yesterday from Canton, where he lodged "Zip" Farmer in the workhouse, stayed in Alliance a few minutes, and states that the first man he met upon leaving the train was the notorious "Big Six."

"I shook hands with him and held quite a conversation with him," said the officer. "He took me to a barber shop at my request and inquired about his acquaintances in this city. He stated that he would be here on a visit in the near future."

Parents say that it is asking too much to require a single teacher to handle 100 pupils when she is provided with desks for only half that number. The president of the board, Mr. Allison, however, says: "The people ought to be satisfied. The board has done what it thought was right. If the patrons of the school are not suited with our management let them get a new school board."

Glee Club Concert.

The Anthracite Glee club gave its last concert at Rock Springs park last night. Mr. Marz, temporary leader of the famous Rocerto orchestra, stated that the miners' music is excellent, yet the audience was not as large as it might have been. The miners have not received the support expected, in spit of the fact that the money made by the musicians goes to pay the living expenses of the strikers. The club will probably give a series of street concerts in East Liverpool.

OFFICERS SUSPENDED

CHIEF THORN LAYS OFF TWO WELLSVILLE POLICEMEN.

Accused of Visiting Disorderly Houses When They Should Be on Duty.

Chief Thorn on Tuesday evening suspended Officers Davis and Marshall, of the local police force, for an indefinite period.

The officers, it is said, did not report for duty Tuesday at the usual time and as a result Chief Thorn and Officer Houser began a search for them and found them in a disorderly house on Second street asleep in bed. The officers gave no explanation for their action and were then suspended by the chief.

When Mayor Fogo returned from Columbus this morning he was asked what he would do with the officers. He only stated that he would make an investigation and see what should be done. For the present time City Building Officer Elliott will cover one of the beats, while the other will be covered by ex-Officer Henthorn.

Officer Davis has gone to Pittsburg and will remain there for a few days, while Marshall still remains in the city. They have nothing to say regarding the matter accept to admit that they have been suspended by the chief.

The public opinion is that Chief Thorn took the proper action under the circumstances, and that the police force should be reorganized.

The story is now the topic of general conversation, as the officers have been very popular heretofore and their action comes as a great surprise.

DR. GLADDEN TALKS

NO CHURCH UNION FOR TWO YEARS AT LEAST.

Unusual Scenes Witnessed at Closing of Session—Seven Members Received Into the Conference.

"The most harmonious conference held in the history of the Methodist Protestant church of the Pittsburg district was that which closed at Knoxville M. P. church at Pittsburg," said Rev. W. H. Gladden, president of the conference, to the News Review today. Monday evening there was a great revival at the Knoxville church, at which 24 persons knelt at the altar. Not for years were such scenes witnessed at a conference.

In speaking of the church union, Mr. Gladden said that as the matter was first started in the United Brethren church, most of the preliminary work would fall to that church. However, it will be two years at least before any definite action is taken in this matter. The general conference of the M. P. church will not meet until May 24 at Montgomery, Ala., and in the same city the general conference of the United Brethren church will also meet. It is then that the idea will be talked over and decision reached. "So far the matter is meeing with general favor," said Mr. Gladden, "and it is a most excellent idea."

During the conference seven ministers were received into the Pittsburg conference. Three were from New York, one from Indiana and one from Virginia. Besides these Dr. David Jones, formerly president of Adrian college, and Rev. A. T. Steele, of this city, were also admitted. Still there is room for other ministers in this conference.

In declining to take the First church charge at Allegheny, Rev. A. T. Steele, of this city is going to Waynesburg, Pa., will receive a salary from $500 to $800 less, than if he would have accepted the Allegheny charge. He however pledged his word that he would go to Waynesburg, and refused to consider a higher salary offer from the First church, Allegheny, on this account.

Gun Club and Its Visitors and Friends Had a Day of Fine Sport.

EXCELLENT SCORES MADE

The Prize Winners Announced, Local Talent Coming in For Its Share of the Money—Close of the Interesting Contest.

Only a happy remembrance is left of the second annual tournament of the East Liverpool Gun club under auspicious circumstances at the club grounds in Chester yesterday. The members of the club feel proud of the fact that it was one of the most successful shoots, both financially and socially, that has been pulled off in the state this season.

Among the score of shooters from out of town there were several well advanced in marksmanship. E. F. Haak, of Canton, proved himself to be an expert, winning in every event and first money in five. W. T. Early, of Salem, was a close second, and George Cochran, of Washington, Pa., showed remarkable ability.

Of the local men who participated can be said that, considering their small amount of practice, they made a fine showing. Several prizes were won by them and the majority pulled out of the events a trifle to the good. Barring one feature the events met the approval of the entire contingent. The Magau trap used did not work as was desired. It sent the blue rocks true for the shooters when standing in four places, starting from the left, but in the fifth place they were compelled to shoot every time at the rock which sailed in a direction parallel to their positions. To those who shot quickly this feature was a worry. The trap will be thoroughly repaired before another shoot is held. From the trap were sent over 6,000 rocks, of which there were possibly 3,500 broken.

The following are the members of the local club and all are to be complimented upon their efforts in making the day such a successful one:

R. L. Edmonston, president; Hugh Johnston, vice president; Dr. J. M. Little, captain; R. W. Sample, secretary; W. E. Vodrey, assistant secretary; I. N. Crable, treasurer; George F. Brunt, L. H. Brush, H. E. Bicknell, Dr. F. F. Davis, William M. Foutts, J. W. Hunter, Dr. W. A. Hobbs, William F. Lewis, Dr. L. C. Jackman, E. M. Knowles, A. E. McDonald, J. W. Reese, C. A. Smith, Dr. J. A. Saint, D. H. Yant, J. M. Thompson, Harold Marshall, H. Homer Knowles, John A. Gardner.

In yesterday's issue of the News Review nine of the events were exclusively given with their results, making it necessary only to report the four concluding events. They were as follows:

Tenth event, 15 targets—Kingsbury, 13; Bilsing, 10; Cochran, 14; Besserer, 9; Pills, 10; Saffold, 9; Haak, 12; Russi, 10; Little, 6; Early, 12; Jackman, 14; Foutts, 9; Lewis, 8; Johnston, 10.

Eleventh event, 20 targets—Kingsbury, 12; Bilsing, 16; Cochran, 17; Besserer, 17; Pills, 13; Saffold, 14; Haak, 16; Russi, 13; Crable, 13; Little, 14; Early, 18; Edmonston, 15; Jackman, 16; Lewis, 14; Johnston, 14.

Twelfth event, 10 targets—Kingsbury, 6; Bilsing, 9; Cochran, 6; Besserer, 5; Pills, 8; Saffold, 9; Haak, 9; Russi, 7; Crable, 2; Little, 6; Early, 8; Jackman, 4; Lewis, 4; Johnston, 6.

Thirteenth event, 25 targets—Kingsbury, 14; Bilsing, 20; Cochran, 21; Besserer, 19; Pills, 19; Saffold, 15; Haak, 23; Russi, 18; Crable, 14; Little, 9; Early, 21.

Purses were divided according to the Rose system, and as a result very few escaped without receiving a prize. Those receiving first money in each event were: First event, Cochran, $1.40; second event, Cochran and Haak, each $3.50; third event, Besserer, $5.50; fourth event, Haak, $4.50; fifth event, Early, $2.80; sixth event, Agnew, $3.50; seventh event, Haak, $4; eighth event, Early, $2.90; ninth event, Haak, $5; tenth event, Cochran, $4; eleventh event, Early, $6.25; twelfth event, Haak, $4; thirteenth event, Haak, $7.30.

The $25 average money was divided as follows: Haak, $10; Cochran and Early, $3.75 each; Agnew and Besserer, $2.50 each; Saffold, $2.50.

A New Back For An Old One—How It Is Done In East Liverpool.

Sometimes the back aches with a dull, indescribable feeling making you weary and restless; sometimes pain shoots across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use plastering or rubbing the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. To exchange a bad back for a new and stronger one, follow the example of this East Liverpool citizen.

Mr. Wm. Anderson, of 305 Lisbon street, says: "During the civil war I enlisted and served three years in the Forty-second Ohio infantry. From the exposure during the war I attributed the severe aching and weakness in the loins and muscular rheumatism of recent years which all seemed to center in my kidneys. In the morning when first getting up I was very dizzy until I had moved around for a time and my nervous system became affected, causing a fluttering and fullness around the heart. Seeing an advertisement in the paper I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy and took them. A few doses gave me relief. The improvement was gradual and continued as the medicine got thoroughly into my system. I firmly believe that Doan's Kidney Pills will in every case as they did in mine, prove the justness of the claims made for them."

Smith-Smith.

The marriage of Mr. Wm. Smith, of Chester, W. Va., and Miss Margaret Smith, of Toronto, occured last evening at the First M. E. parsonage. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock, by Rev. Dr. Clark Crawford. The groom is employed as a dipper in the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery, in Chester, and upon returning home the happy young couple were accorded a rousing reception by the pottery employes. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home on the Southside.

Divorced at Steubenville.

Laura Black secured a divorce at Steubenville from her husband, James Alexander Black, on the ground of willful absence from his wife and family, failure to provide, etc. The wife testified that she has supported herself and children by her own exertions, and five years previous to their parting she had worked in a pottery, and at present is working as a domestic in an East Liverpool family.

MEMORY OF M'KINLEY

Cincinnati, Sept. 11.—Additional responses to inquiries yesterday had been received from governors, members of congress, church dignitaries and others, endorsing the movement for McKinley memorial services in the churches next Sunday. Rev. John M. Schick, President Roosevelt's pastor at Washington, and Rev. Frank M. Bristol, pastor of the church McKinley formerly attended in Washington, both telegraph that they would speak on the life and character of McKinley next Sunday. Archbishop Elder yesterday issued an order that the Litany of the Saints be publicly recited next Sunday after high mass.

Pittsburg, Sept. 11.—Pittsburg and Allegheny ministers of all denominations are most interested in making next Sunday a great memorial to the life and work of the late president, William McKinley. In nearly every church of the two cities memorial services will be held, and since the proclamation of the recorder, announcements were coming in thick and fast of the intention of the ministers to generally observe the day.

Gov. Stone Issued Proclamation.

Harrisburg, Sept. 11.—Governor Stone yesterday issued the following proclamation:

"In accordance with the action of the governor of our neighboring state of Ohio, and as a fitting tribute to the memory of William McKinley, late president of the United States, who was held in such high personal regard by the citizens of our commonwealth, I, William A. Stone, governor of Pennsylvania, recommend that Sunday, Sept. 14, the first anniversary of his death, be reverently observed by the people of this state, and that memorial services be held in the churches of all denominations throughout the commonwealth at the regular hour of worship.

"W. A. Stone,
"Governor of Pennsylvania."

Helena, Mont., Sept. 11.—Governor Toole issued a proclamation yesterday recommending that the churches of all denominations throughout the state shall hold memorial services next Sunday, the first anniversary of the death of President McKinley.

St. Paul, Sept. 11.—Governor Van Sant yesterday issued a proclamation urging that appropriate memorial services be held throughout the state on the anniversary of the death of President McKinley.

Tribute of President's Pastor.

Steubenville, O., Sept. 11.—Rev. Dr. C. E. Manchester, who was President McKinley's pastor, gave out a statement yesterday as follows:

"The American people should perpetually observe in a special manner the anniversary of the death of the lamented McKinley. Without doubt he was the best loved president that this country has ever seen, and our wounded hearts are not yet healed. The luster of his character has grown brighter during the past year. We see how patriotic he was, how pure in thought and action. His every heart beat was for his country. His death was that of a martyr. His life will be an inspiration to brave manhood for all time since we caught a glimpse of his. God help the patient widow, whose great wish is that they may soon be reunited. All praise to Governor Nash for the proclamation. McKinley memorial day should be permanent in our calendar."

All run down! Drilled out, no life, no ambition, no appetite, no hope, discouraged and blue. How familiar those symptoms are. Nearly everyone at some time or other has experienced some or all of them, and worried along trusting to nature alone for recuperation. Maybe a little assistance right now might not only hasten recovery, but prevent a more serious result. Right now is the time to take a cup of Wright's Celery Tea when you first realize your condition to be on the decline, and put a stop to it at once. Drink a cup of the tea tonight and get up ready for your day's duty tomorrow. Continue the treatment a few days and note the brightness and general good feeling which always follows the use of Wright's Celery Tea. Pleasant and agreeable to the most delicate stomach. At all druggists, 25c and 50c.

There often comes a time in the struggle with pulmonary disease when the victim loses heart and gives up hope. The ambition to be up and around gives way before growing weakness, and the sufferer keeps to the bed.

No one who suffers from lung disease should lose heart or give up hope while there is a possibility of cure. In many cases Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured lung "trouble" when the cough was obstinate and deep seated, with hemorrhage, emaciation, night-sweats and general weakness. A great many men and women are living to-day in the full enjoyment of health and happiness who had been "given up" by doctors, but found a perfect and permanent cure in the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

"My wife had hemorrhage of the lungs," writes W. A. Sanders, of Hern, Mason Co., W.Va. "She had ten hemorrhages, and the people all around here said she would never be well again. But she began to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she soon began to gain strength and flesh. After taking ten bottles she was entirely well. Should you think this would do you any good to publish, just use it, and if any one disputes the merits of this almost omnipotent medicine they may enclose self-addressed envelope with stamp, and I will answer, the same as written in this letter."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ECZEMA CURED

—BY—

LIFE PLANT.

Stillwater, O., Nov. 5th, 1898.

Life Plant Co.,

Messrs:—After trying the best physicians and the popular remedies of the day for fifteen years for a stubborn case of Eczema, without being benefited, and as physicians claimed there was no cure for me I had concluded to abandon the use of all medicines, believing my case incurable.

Six years ago, hearing through a friend who had tried it, that LIFE PLANT was a wonderful remedy, I was persuaded to make one more trial. $5 worth of LIFE PLANT cured me and I would not take the disease back to keep for thousands of dollars. I was cured six years ago and the disease does not return.

Since being cured myself I have persuaded a number of my friends who had bad cases of Eczema, to try LIFE PLANT, and it cured in every case; and the best of all is, they stay cured. I have given you herein a plain statement of facts and you are at liberty to publish the same for the benefit of those afflicted.

Yours truly,
W. H. HOUK.

My daughter had eczema, has just finished her first bottle, and is almost entirely cured. She will continue its use until it is entirely eradicated from the system.

STRONG EFFORT IS PUT FORTH

PUPILS WILL FALL BEHIND

At the beginning of the school year an interesting question presents itself in regard to the regular attendance of the pupils. At this time the foundation for the year's work is laid, and if it be crippled by irregular attendance the pupil falls behind in his work, becomes discouraged, fails in one or more branches, and soon finds himself ready to discontinue his education, with little thought or care for the future.

Supt. Rayman, when seen by a News Review representative today, expressed himself as being very anxious to have the children of the local schools start in and attend regularly. Many parents are of the opinion that a day's absence now and then will amount to little, but this is a most erroneous idea, since the interest in the work is not sustained. Observation and experience teach that over 90 per cent of the pupils who attend regularly win their promotion every year.

Then, too, regular attendance is just as important, and even more so in the first year's work as in any, because with the new experience the child acquires habits of regularity which follow him through the entire course and ultimately through life. The school authorities are especially anxious that the parents shall give the matter their most careful consideration, and see to it that their children are in school every day, and then they can reasonably expect good results.

The last compulsory education law passed by the general assembly of this state provides that "Every parent, guardian or other person having charge of any child between the ages of 8 and 14 years shall send such child to a public, private or parochial school for the full time that the school attended is in session, which shall in no case be for less than 24 weeks; and said attendance shall begin with the first week of the school term unless the child is excused from such attendance by the superintendent of the public schools in city or other districts having such superintendent."

HIGH SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Is Remarkably Good—Freshman Class Largest in City's History.

That the local high school is steadily growing is shown by the recent report made by Supt. R. E. Rayman. The report shows that the freshman class is composed of 109 pupils—51 boys and 58 girls; the sophomore class, 58 pupils—21 boys and 37 girls; junior class, 47—18 boys and 29 girls; senior class 35—10 boys and 25 girls.

This is the largest senior class in the history of the school. By this report it will be seen that there are just 100 boys and 149 girls in the high school. Thus the attendance of the boys is about 68 per cent of the girls, which is a very good showing.

Witnesses in Hiding.

The Pittsburg police authorities were notified yesterday that Levi Allen and his wife, of Steubenville, who are two of the most important witnesses against Joseph E. Allen, under indictment for the murder of Achsah King, had disappeared from their homes and could not be found. Owing to this fact, the trial of Allen, which was to have begun yesterday, has been postponed. Allen's wife was given a divorce in Steubenville yesterday, on the ground that he had threatened her life.

ACCUSED BY UNCLE SAM

Young Man Arrested Charged With Robbing a Postoffice at Newell's Run.

Clarence Bell, aged 18, of Newell's Run, O., was arrested at Ballentyne's clay bank, across the river from Toronto, yesterday morning by Deputy United States Marshal John S. McCallister, of Marietta, on a charge of robbing the postoffice in that town.

Newell's Run is a little country village about 16 miles above Marietta, and the postoffice is in the village store. On the night of July 31, during a terrific storm the store was entered and the postoffice robbed of a quantity of stamps and some money. Young Bell, whose home is a mile away from Newell's Run, was missing after the robbery, and as he had been in trouble on a former occasion, suspicion naturally attached to him.

Bell had received mail at Toronto from his home and until recently had been employed at the Great Western sewer pipe plant. A week ago he left and went to work in the Ballentyne clay mines, across the river. Yesterday morning Marshal McCallister, accompanied by Marshal Murray, made a search for Bell along the West Virginia side and located him. He offered no resistance. He was taken to Steubenville on a trolley car, where he was arraigned before United States Commissioner Finley.

He pleaded not guilty and was remanded to jail under $1,000 bail. His hearing has been set for Wednesday of next week.

C. & P. EXTENSION

Engineers Making a Survey for a Line to Dennison.

Uhrichsville, Sept. 11.—The Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad may connect with the Panhandle line at Dennison in a short time. The farmers living up Healea valley are much interested over the new C. & P. extension through the ridge and down the valley. Engineers have looked over the ground to ascertain the feasibility of a line from the present southern terminus of the C. & P. at Klondike to Dennison. The route will be a direct one, extending in a southerly direction and connecting with the Panhandle at Dennison in the new East End yards and running near the rolling mill. The only hindrance to this extension is a hill a short distance northeast of Dennison. It has been the subject of much discussion. The new route will necessitate the tunneling of that hill. Engineers have looked at this hill with that view in mind.

When the C. & P. was constructed to the coal fields at Klondike the matter of constructing a tunnel was the chief obstacle that delayed further extension. For some time this route is said to have been under consideration. The extension is thought to be an early possibility. The extension will mean the opening of a vast field near Dennison.

The Canton Coal company has already leased the coal land on two farms, while several other farmers have leased their coal to another company.

Brain Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You may prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get the reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's.

Strike Leader and Pennsylvania Governor to Hold Conference on Saturday.

BY THE EXECUTIVE'S INVITATION

Railroad Employes' Committee Drafted Three Arbitration Bills—Stone Willing to Convene Lawmakers, if Assured Bill Will Pass.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 11.—Some important messages passed between the executive mansion at Harrisburg and President Mitchell last night. Mr. Mitchell, who was spending the evening at Harvey's lake, telephoned to this city that he had accepted an invitation from Governor Stone to confer with him at Harrisburg on Saturday. He did not know what matters would be discussed at the conference.

Richardson Bore Messages to Mitchell

Harrisburg, Sept. 11.—Colonel William F. Richardson, keeper of the state arsenal, who was sent by Governor Stone to Wilkesbarre yesterday with a message to President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, returned late last night and reported to the governor at the executive mansion. Colonel Richardson said on his arrival here that his mission was such that he could not disclose anything, and would not even admit that he had gone to see Mitchell or that they had met. He would disclose nothing after leaving the mansion. Governor Stone was even more reticent than Colonel Richardson. All that he could be induced to say was that he was doing everything possible to settle the strike and that he could not predict what would be the result. The governor would not say whether or not he had heard from Mitchell through Colonel Richardson or whether the latter has seen the strike leader.

Committee Drafted Arbitration Bills.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 11.—A committee from the state legislative board of railroad employes of Pennsylvania will go to Wilkesbarre today to meet President Mitchell and the district presidents of the United Mine Workers for the purpose of discussing certain arbitration legislation to be considered by the general assembly if Governor Stone shall call an extra session.

The committee has drafted three bills to be submitted to the mine leaders and if they are approved by them they will be presented to the governor, with a request that he call an extra session for their consideration. The committee in charge of the proposed legislation has been assured by the executive that if he can be satisfied that the legislature would enact legislation that would settle the coal strike and prevent other strikes he will not hesitate to call the legislature together.

The bills which have been prepared by the committee provide for compulsory arbitration in labor disputes, which shall be submitted to boards and commissions to be appointed by the courts and by the governor, and whose decision shall be final. The bills are not yet completed, but drafts have been submitted to several prominent attorneys, who have advised those in charge of the proposed legislation that the measures are not in conflict with the constitution.

The railroad committee consists of Milton T. Robinson, of Harrisburg; William J. Zerby, of Mauch Chunk, and George W. Coyle, of Philadelphia.

Quay Says Strike May Be Issue.

New York, Sept. 11.—Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, returned from New York yesterday from the Adirondacks. He said:

"I saw Senator Platt this morning. I am not here on matters relating to the coal strike. I am on my way to Philadelphia after a vacation. I shall leave on the 4 o'clock train. I do not know when the anthracite strike will end. I have had no conference regarding the strike settlement with any one since I have been in the Adirondacks. The coal strike is not a political issue in Pennsylvania now. There is no telling whether it may be until the campaign begins in earnest."

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 11.—The coroner's jury investigating the cause of death of the Italian union miner, Castelli, when he and Frank Portray were attacked by strikers at Maltby last Monday morning, returned a verdict last evening that the murdered man came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by parties unknown to the jury.

Portay, who sustained serious injuries at the hands of the mob, was able to be present and testified. One of his arms is broken and he is injured internally. Ten men had been arrested by last night, charged with being implicated in the assault on the Italians. They will be given a hearing before Magistrate Pollock today.

Russians Order British Expelled.

Pekin, Sept. 11.—Paul Lessar, the Russian minister here, has advised the Russian commander in Manchuria that the presence of foreigners in Manchuria during the military occupation is objectionable, and he is directed to expel the British imperial customs employes who may be sent to Manchuria to resume charge of the postal service.

AGAIN ATTACKED

Mary Burris And Others Claim Testator's Old Will Was Destroyed By Himself.

Lisbon, September 11.—(Special)—Lina Hartley, of Salineville, has entered suit in common pleas court against Mrs. Mary E. Burris and 35 other heirs of Abraham Hartley, late of Salineville. She asks that the order of the probate court, probating a copy of the destroyed will of Abraham Hartley, be set aside, and the paper be held not to be the last will of the deceased.

She claims that the will was not destroyed after the death of Hartley or after he had become incapable of making a will; but that he revoked and destroyed the will himself.

Miss Hartley and Mrs. Burris would receive a much larger share of the $25,000 estate if no will existed than under the will probated.

MRS. WILLIAM JACKSON HAS HUSBAND ARRESTED.

An Amiable Agreement Reached Between the Two Before the 'Squire.

Charged with the non-support of his minor child, William Jackson, a kiln drawer employed at Cartwright's pottery, was arrested this morning by Constable Powell and taken before 'Squire McLane.

The affidavit causing his arrest was sworn to by his wife, Edna. She stated that he had grossly neglected their boy, Richard, and that she had tried in every way to settle matters without bringing the case into the hands of the law. After carefully considering the case the 'squire dismissed Jackson upon his promise to make an amicable agreement with his spouse and care for the child in the future.

Following the dismissal Jackson produced papers showing that he is a veteran of the Spanish-American war, and applied to the 'squire to intercede for him in getting a pension. The 'squire will endeavor to get the pension.

Arc Light Bill Attacked.

Columbus, Sept. 11.—(Special)—The state executive committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Locomotive Engineers is here to resist the move to secure the repeal of the Jones arc light bill. MOULDMAKERS' LOCAL OUT OF BROTHERHOOD

books. These would have been returned last evening, but when a call was made at Brotherhood headquarters the offices were closed and the property could not be delivered until today.

A prominent mouldmaker said today: "I never before heard of the limit of the law being given any person found guilty on his first offense. It generally follows that, when a person is found guilty of any infraction of any law, the smallest possible fine is given for the first offense and so on until the limit is reached. But it does not seem to be the same in this case. However, we are satisfied."

The mouldmakers, at their meeting, took preliminary steps to form an independent organization. Temporary officers were named, but no time is set for a future meeting. However, there is every reason to believe that the independent local will have just as large a membership as the former local had.

National Secretary Thomas J. Duffy, when seen at headquarters this afternoon, was asked for a statement concerning the action of the mouldmakers. He said: "That is a matter that I cannot talk about at this time."

JURY LAW ATTACKED

Attorneys at Akron Hold That Present Statutes Are Unconstitutional.

Akron, Sept. 11.—Should the question be raised before Judge Hayden in the common pleas court yesterday be decided according to the contention of the defendants' attorney in the case of David Davis against the B. F. Goodrich company, the jury law under which trials are now held will be declared unconstitutional. The case is one involving $36,000, in damages and until the point raised by the defendant is decided no further hearing in it will be had.

The Toledo decision holding the law governing jury trials in Cuyahoga, Hamilton, Franklin, Lucas, Mahoning and Montgomery counties unconstitutional is the basis for the contention of the attorneys. They claim that if that law was special legislation, then the law governing counties is also special legislation.

19TH YEAR. NO. 215. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1902. TWO CENTS.

WAR IS DECLARED ON SLOT MACHINES

SAYS THEY PLAINLY VIOLATE THE LAW

Forty-five in Operation in East Liverpool Saloons, and Keepers May Be Indicted.

War has been declared on the slot machines in this city. Since the introduction of these devices into the saloons here several months ago many wild and exaggerated rumors have been current as to the steps that would eventually be taken for the ousting of them. Until today there has been no authentic basis for the reports in circulation.

Official action is to be inaugurated against the owners of the machines and also against those who have permitted them to be operated in their places of business. Investigation develops the fact that every one of those implicated in the least in the machines and their operation is likely to be indicted by the next grand jury which convenes on September 22. The ground is that the machines are gambling devices.

The indictments, if found, will be upon what has been allowed to exist in this city up to the present time, and if every machine is not closed, shipped from the city or otherwise disposed of immediately a separate indictment will be asked for every day that they are in operation between the present time and the day that action is taken on them by the jury.

The following inscription placed at the top of the machines, it is said, will give rise for defense if the cases are brought up for trial:

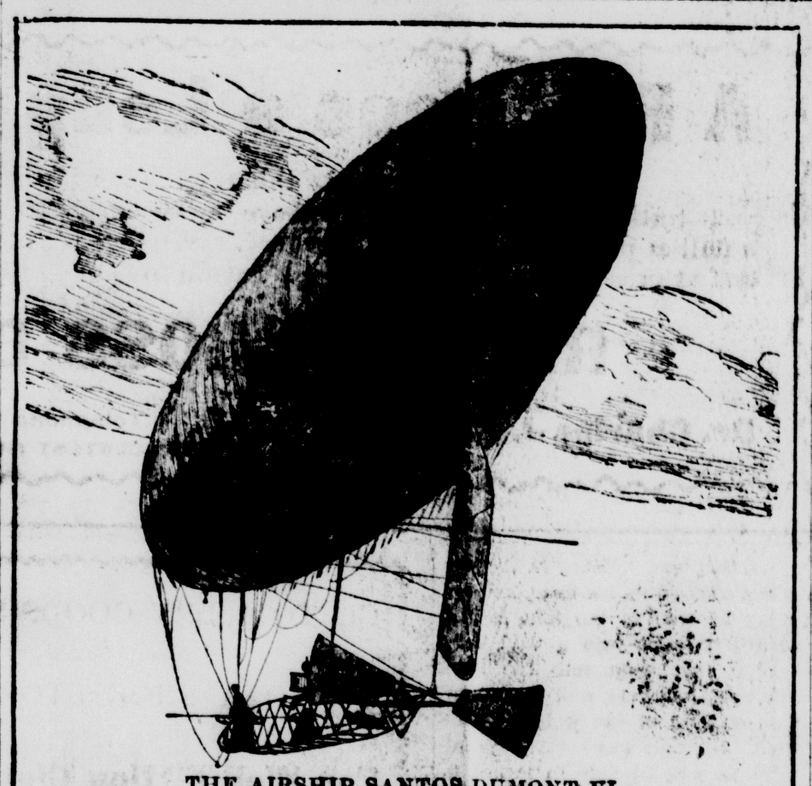

"THIS IS NOT A GAMBLING DEVICE.

"Any person desiring to gamble must not put money in this machine. As a consideration for the use of this Music Machine and the music furnished, it is expressly agreed that any of the nickels which come out in the cup below must and shall be played back into the machine, thereby giving more music."

Prosecuting Attorney Jason H. Brookes when interviewed today, made the following statement:

"I expect to call the attention of the coming grand jury to the case of every slot machine in this city. They are clearly gambling machines, and the musical accompaniments attached to each will not deceive a court.

"I have already evidence in my possession of 45 such machines kept by as many different saloonkeepers. Each day these machines are kept here will lay the foundation for an additional charge. The punishment for each offence is both fine and imprisonment—the fine not more than $500 and not less than $50, and imprisonment in the workhouse or jail, not more than 90 days or less than ten days."

MAYOR TOOK PART IN FOOT RACE

Sebring's Chief Engaged in It to Oblige an Old Friend.

The Ex-Prisoner Hoped to Win—The Mayor Outran Him And There Is Now a Coldness Between the Former Cronies.

It is an impossibility for a man to be mayor and retain all of his friends. At least this is the firm belief of Joseph Gibbon, a former well known potter of East Liverpool, who is now the chief executive of Sebring.

Joe had a friend in the Mahoning pottery town whose name is Charley. The latter is one of the boys, and occasionally gets on a "bat." Last week several days were spent by him in an attempt to consume all the booze both Alliance and Selam could produce. The result was disastrous to Charley, as he not only failed in his attempt to get on the outside of all the liquor at hand, but wound up with a bad case of remorse and an exceedingly bad disposition. So ugly did he become that the authorities finally arrested him.

He was arraigned before Mayor Gibbon. The latter was plainly embarrassed, as he and Charley were the best of friends. In passing sentence the mayor said: 'Charley, I hate to do this, but it is my duty to do so. The law and good order of this community must be upheld, and it is the sentence of the court that you pay a fine of $5.60 on a charge of disorderly conduct."

The money was paid over, but Charley still lingered in the mayor's office. After shifting about in his seat for a short time he finally said: "You and I have been good friends for a long time, Joe, and it is a most unfortunate occurrence that has just taken place. Don't you think you could remit the fine?"

Mayor Gibbon said it would be impossible, but there might be some other way around the embarrassing situation. He said it went against his grain to take his friend's money.

Charley proposed a game of crib, but the mayor thought that would affect his dignity, and several other plans were suggested with the same objectionable features. Finally a foot race was agreed upon, the stakes to be $5 a side. Charley was confident he could win, and if he did he would only be out 60 cents.

The preliminaries were arranged, and the race was won by the mayor. The friend had evidently forgotten that Gibbon had once been a sprinter of some note, as he beat him badly; in fact, Charley had trouble in keeping in sight.

There has been a coldness between the mayor and his former friend ever since, and this was changed to an absolute frost when Charley got word from England, asking about the $10.60 he had lost.

Meantime the magistrate is thinking seriously of resigning his position, since he states he cannot afford to make enemies in that way.

Rev. W. B. Campbell Will Quit the Ministry and Study Medicine.

U. P. PRESBYTERY CALLED

The resignation of Rev. Wm. B. Campbell as pastor of the Calcutta United Presbyterian church fell on the church like a bolt from a clear sky. Not a member of the little country church expected anything of the sort, and to say that the members of the church were surprised is to express their feelings but mildly.

For some time Rev. Mr. Campbell has been considering the idea of leaving the ministry and entering the medical profession. He reached the decision in this matter last week, and consequently presented his resignation to the members of the congregation as pastor. The resignation will take effect one week from next Sunday, and on the morning of that day he will preach his farewell sermon. The congregation has voted to release him.

A meeting of Steubenville presbytery will be held in the First Presbyterian church in this city next Monday for the purpose of taking action upon the resignation of Pastor Campbell. At this time it is impossible to tell who will be the postor of the church at Calcutta. A meeting of the officials of this church will be held soon at which time a list of supplies will be made out. In this way the congregation will be able to hear a new minister indefinitely, and when the members of the church think they have heard a preacher that pleases them, a call will be extended to him to become pastor of the church. This plan is followed in all churches of this denomination and is exactly that which the Second United Presbyterian church in the East End followed.

Rev. W. B. Campbell has been pastor of the Calcutta church for several years, and has a large circle of friends throughout the country district about Calcutta, who are sorry to see him leave.

MOULDMAKERS' LOCAL OUT OF BROTHERHOOD

Mouldmakers' local, No. 22, as a subordinate organization of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, is a matter of hisory. Its connection with the Brotherhood was severed at a meeting held last evening. In fact, one mouldmaker said this morning that they were driven from home.

The final outcome of the meeting last evening and the causes that led up to it created a profound sensation in pottery circles today. The recent meeting of the national executive board, which was held in this city a few days ago, was the closing chapter of a friction that has been of long standing between the local and the Brotherhood.

It appears that the Trenton convention, which was attended by Thomas Harsha, as a delegate of local No. 22, was the beginning of the friction. When the convention ended, Mr. Harsha, the delegate of this local, returned home with other delegates, and at the following meeting of the local, a report of the convention was presented by Mr. Harsha. This was followed by the local passing a resolution in which it was stated that the mouldmakers were satisfied with conditions in their branch of the trade as they existed, and a copy of this resolution was sent to the conference committee of the National Brotherhood before any conference had been held with the committee which represented the Western Manufacturing Potters' association.

A like copy was also sent to all mouldmakers outside the city, and not in any way affiliated with the mouldmakers' local in this city. As is well known, there is hardly a pottery in the city where the work of the mould shop is not done under contract, and at the convention one of the most important discussions was that which referred to the abolishment of this system.

Now it is averred that this resolution, after being read by the National officers, was followed by charges against the mouldmakers by the national officers, in which it was alleged that the local was trying to defeat the ends and purposes of the national officers in trying to enforce the action of the Trenton convention. A trial was the result of these charges, and this was the main cause of the national executive committee being called to this city.

The mouldmakers, at a meeting a short time beforehand, appointed a committee and at the proper time appeared before the executive board. This meeting was held in closed chambers at the national headquarters and no information could be secured at the time from the national officers concerning the meeting or trial. During the trial the committee representing the mouldmakers demanded but two things: Conviction or acquittal.

The result of the trial was never made public by the national officers, although at times rumors had been heard about the outcome.

At the meeting of the mouldmakers last evening a communication was read by Secretary J. G. Mantz, the substance of which was that the local was expelled from the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters. This was followed by the secretary being instructed to return to the national headquarters all property in the possession of the local which belonged to the national organization. This included charter, seals, moneys and

Will Return to This City Very Soon and Be Placed Under Bond.

Albert McIntosh has been located. He will arrive in the city within the next 48 hours and quietly walked into the office of Squire H. P. McCarron, there to answer to the charge preferred against him.

Contrary to announcements published from police headquarters he is now and has been since last Monday morning with his wife in the vicinity of New Matamoras, visiting relatives.

James C. McIntosh, father of Albert, is responsible for the statement. He appeared before Squire McCarron yesterday afternoon; gave the information as to his son's location, and then made arrangements for a bond that will cover any amount that might be required by the squire, provided he sees fit to bind the young man over to the grand jury.

The elder McIntosh said: "I did not know definitely for several days where my son was, but was positive he had gone down the river. I now know that he is visiting relatives near New Matamoras, and that he will return to give himself up before Sunday."

Just why the fugitive has kept himself in seclusion when it would be possible for him to get bond for several thousand dollars is not known. It was likely due to his fear of being tried on a murder charge, and even a man well backed financially does not covet such a position.

Constable Charles Gill is out of town and it is supposed that he has gone after McIntosh.

Albert Thompson, the young man who was cut while a dance was in progress near Calcutta last Saturday evening, was to be brought to his home in this city today. His condition is much improved, and it is now thought that he will entirely recover from the injuries he received during the fight.

FENDERS FOR ALL CARS

Within 30 days all the cars of the East Liverpool Railway company will be equipped with fenders. This was the statement of Supt. Thompson, of the United Power company, this morning. It will be remembered that the exclusive announcement was made in this paper several weeks ago that the company was experimenting with a fender which was invented by Mr. Thompson and made at the power house by Morris Baxter, chief engineer of the company, and was given a thorough trial by being placed on car No. 39, a summer car. It has proved what has been claimed for it, and is one of the most satisfactory fenders ever invented.

Many of these fenders are now being made at the power house, and the work of placing them on the cars will commence shortly. On the double truck cars there will be a fender at each end, while on the smaller cars, a fender will be placed at one end only. A fender is to be placed on each end of the cars operated on the Calcutta road branch.

Democratic State Convention.

Columbus, Sept. 11.—(Special)—The State Democratic Committee completed its organization yesterday by electing A. P. Sandals, a newspaper man of Ottawa, as secretary. It was decided to assess each candidate on the state ticket, excepting Rev. Herbert Bigelow, of Cincinnati, who aspires to be secretary of state, $1,000. Mr. Bigelow's services on the stump will be accepted in lieu of an assessment.

Ex-Mayor Magowan, of Trenton, Has None of Those $2,000,000 Left.

Reports from the east state that Frank A. Magowan, former mayor of Trenton, ex-president of the Trenton Potteries company and known to some in this city, is now practically penniless. Only seven years ago his wealth was estimated at $2,000,000. Magowan's first wife, from whom he was divorced to marry the divorced wife of Mr. Barnes, after a hard struggle with poverty has been appointed to a position as copyist in the chancery court in Trenton.

Magowan began life as a newsboy. He had been elected mayor of Trenton before he met Mrs. Barnes. Now his millions, his business, his beautiful $500,000 home and special trains, his horses and carriages, are said to have vanished. Magowan scattered money with a lavish hand while it lasted, but luck did not stay with him, and during recent court proceedings he swore he was penniless.

Four Tracks Across Carpenter's Run Bridge and What They Mean.

While much has been said and more written about the improvements that are to be made about this city by the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad the exact facts or the intentions of the company have not yet been told. The story of the company securing rights of way through the city for an additional track or tracks, reports of contracts for excavating being asked, and all that sort of thing, have been written about, but exactly what the company is now doing has never been told.

When the railroad company sent a pile driver to this city several weeks ago to do some work in the vicinity of the flint mill, little was thought at the time of the enlarged freight yards that the company proposed to build in this city. This work is now under way, but it will be January before the contracts are completed. Of course the main point in view is the double tracking of the road at this spot and this is to be done at once.

The work of taking down the stone work of the bridge at the flint mill is now under way, and the trenches have been dug on the east side of the bridge for the east abutment to the bridge. The bottom of this trench is just six feet below the bed of Carpenter's run, and from the tracks to the bottom of the trench it is about 40 feet. When this new bridge is completed it will contain four tracks. Two of the tracks will be used for main line purposes, and the other two for siding purposes. An official of the railroad company made this statement yesterday afternoon.

When the four tracks are completed it will mean that the freight yards or storage tracks on the West End will have been enlarged. Freight trains

FIXED AT TEN MILLS

A Most Important Clause Limiting Aggregate City Tax Levy.

Columbus, Sept. 11.—(Special)—The senate passed a number of sections of the administration code yesterday. The most important one was the clause limiting the aggregate tax levy in any municipal corporation in any one year, exclusive of the levy for county and state purposes, for schools, sinking fund and interest, to ten mills.

Senator Archer offered an amendment to increase the aggregate levy to 12 mills, but later withdrew it. The levy may be increased upon a two-thirds vote.

CONGRESSMEN COMING

Rivers and Harbors Committee to Visit Pittsburg and the Ohio River.

Pittsburg, September 11.—A conference was held yesterday by Captains W. B. Rodgers, S. S. Brown and John F. Dravo in regard to the congressional rivers and harbors committeemen's visit to Pittsburg tomorrow and Saturday. The Monongahela House will be headquarters and the main inspection up the Monongahela river will be made tomorrow. The local government engineer will accompany the party, which will include also representatives of the Pittsburg chamber of commerce.

Congressman T. E. Burton, chairman of the rivers and harbors committee, has not notified Captain Dravo what other members will be here. Captain Brown's yacht Trobadour will be used for the inspection trips.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

MAKING GRATE FILLING.

While the fact is known to but a few in this city, a local manufacturer has been making orders for gas grates for a Pittsburg stove firm for about a year. Who is there who has not seen a gas grate filled with clay potatoes and the like? But to have a grate filled with something that resembles a doughnut is new. These are made in this city, at one plant, and in remarkably large quantities. The Pittsburg firm so far this season has placed an order for 25,000 of these pieces, and the first order is now being filled, but it is expected that from now until cold weather ends, the order will have been increased to at least 100,000 pieces. The orders for last winter amounted to about 75,000 pieces. The making of these fillers, as they might properly be called, is interesting. A piece of sagger clay is taken, which has been thoroughly rolled in sawdust. It is then batted out to a certain thickness The tin cutter is then applied to the clay, and then you have something that resembles the doughnut that mother used to make. This small piece of clay is then pressed slightly in the hand, sufficient to show the marks of the finger, and when dried to a certain extent is placed in a kiln, but not in a sagger. In burning these small pieces of clay the sawdust is consumed, and when they are taken from the kiln they are very hard, but they are so light they weigh but a few ounces. The order is a profitable one, and contracts have been signed for several years ahead.

FIRST KILN OF TOPS.

The Cone Fire Clay company, of this city, whose business is confined to the making of chimney tops, at the plant of the East Liverpool Sagger company, yesterday drew its first kiln of tops. The kiln was partially filled with saggers, and it cannot be said that the first kiln was made with success. The mine where the company secured its clay at Salineville was sold, and the local company could not obtain a shipment of this clay. Another mine was opened near the former by another company, and the first car of clay received here was not like that taken from the old mine. The miners are still working, however, and the next shipment of clay will be of the same standard as was used at Salineville. It was also said the tops were placed in the kiln while they were too wet, and being fired with a quantity of saggers was another drawback. Some of the tops taken from the kilns yesterday were of an excellent quality, and these will be shipped at once. The company will probably not fire tops and saggers at the same time again. W. A. Weaver, of Washington street, is the manager of the chimney top department of this plant, and has been associated with that business for many years. That he will have a good quality of clay on hand before the next kiln of tops is fired is a certainty. His company is receiving orders daily, and enough are on hand at present to keep several pressers at work for many months. At present no stock will be made, and all the tops that are made will be shipped at once. About six different designs of tops are being made by this firm.

THE CROOKSVILLE PLANT.

The starting of the new pottery at Crooksville will be awaited with interest by pottery workers in this city, partially on account of a number of local people who will no doubt be employed there and because William Tritt, formerly of this city, is to manage the plant. The clay shops and mould shops will be located on the second floor and on the lower floor will be the clay bins, slip house and green house. The kiln shed and dipping house will be one story. The glost warehouse and decorating shop will be on a level with the kiln shed. Five kilns, three glost and two bisque, will be the capacity of the plant. It will operate four decorating kilns also. Mr. Tritt stated that he would be very careful in selecting his shapes and has two toilet sets modeled and one dinner set being finished. The sagger clay arrived last week and the saggermaker will commence at once. The mouldmaker will start perhaps this week and by engaging three or four assistants can soon have the shop filled with saggers The plant will have sufficient capacity to steam heat the entire plant. A 100 horse power engine has been purchased and placed in operation for the purpose of giving power. Instead of the customary iron stacks for draught the company have erected two large brick stacks. Mr. Tritt stated they were aware of the fact that the expense was great at present, but it proves the cheapest in the long run.

NO SHOW IN SIGHT.

The western potters would like to have a full display of American pottery manufacturers at the St. Louis Exposition in 1904, says a Pittsburg trade paper. American ceramics have not been exhibited to advantage at any international exposition since the one held in Chicago, and the clay industries would certainly benefit by such a display at the St. Louis Exposition. Some East Liverpool ware was exhibited at the Buffalo show, but the expense of this sort of advertising could have been spent to better advantage in other channels, so most manufacturers think.

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT.

William Cuthbert, bench boss on the glost end at the Brunt pottery, met with an unfortunate accident Tuesday. Mr. Cuthbert was walking in the kiln with two saggers on his head, and not thinking he was in the kiln so far, accidently stepped into a well hole. His right foot went into the hole and he could not very well catch himself on account of the weight of the saggers. His foot was severly sprained, and he will be able to return to work in a few days. He resides on May street.

AT WORK EXCAVATING.

The work of excavating for the proposed improvements to the West End pottery is progressing rapidly, the contract for this work having been let to McLaughlin Brothers. A large force of men are employed in this work, and it is expected their contract will be completed within a week. The improvement to the pottery will be rushed as fast as it is possible to do so, and it is thought, with everything in the firm's favor, the new addition will be completed within three months. This new addition will cost several thousand dollars, and everything therein will be modern in every particular.

ITS OUTPUT SOLD.

It is not often that the output of a factory is sold just when a new shop commences business, but this is the case with the East Liverpool Sagger company. Is is announced that this company, just before it commenced business, entered into contracts to keep several of the largest potteries in the city supplied with saggers, and for that reason, no saggers are being made for stock. The company just a day or so ago, received an order for a carload of saggers, and the order is now being filled. In fact, this shop is filling orders just as they come in, but at the same time keeping contracts with the firms in this city.

KILNMAN INJURED.

Mason Reed, of First avenue, a glost kilnman at Laughlin No. 2, met with an accident this morning that will prohibit him from working for several days. He was carrying a sagger up the steps into the kiln when his foot slipped, allowing the saggger to fall from his head and striking his left arm. He went to the office of a physician and although no bones were found to be broken, the arm was found bruised considerably.

TOOK SOME HUSTLING.

The New Castle China company has been compelled to hold over in getting out new dinner ware. A short time ago it completed a very large order for the Duquesne Club, of Pittsburg, and now it is said has a contract with the state of Texas to supply all its public institutions. It is possible that the company may be able to start on its shape some time during the latter part of the fall.

JERSEY CHARTER OBTAINED.

The Barberton Pottery company secured incorporation papers at Trenton Monday. The capital stock of the concern is placed at $150,000, and from announcements in eastern papers, the incorporation was secured through one of the Jersey city agencies. The incorporators are: P. E. Whittemore, H. E. Andrews, F. M. Atterholt. The company is to operate a pottery.

WANT A PACKER.

Within the past two days another firm in a town not for from this city sent word to this city that is desired a packer to take charge of the shop. So far no one has heard of any person applying for the position, and the prevailing opinion is that all the packers who are employed in this city propose to remain here. The idea is an excellent one.

WATER TANK BURST.

The large water tank at the Crescent pottery at Trenton, used for fire purposes, gave way yesterday morning and let its contents out on the roofs and grounds surrounding it. The damage, except to the tank, is not great. The break is supposed to have been the result of a weak band. The tank will be repaired at once.

AT MILWAUKEE.

Thomas Robinson, general manager of the East Liverpool pottery, a branch of the East Liverpool Potteries company, who has been visiting friends in Milwaukee for several days, is expected home the latter part of this week. This is the first vacation Mr. Robinson has had for some years and his many friends hope he is having an enjoyable trip.

THREE DAYS A WEEK.

The anthracite coal strike is still affecting the plants of the Greenwood China company, at Trenton. They are only working three days a week because anthracite coal is hard to get and bituminous lacks the heating properties necessary to fire the Greenwood company's particular kind of ware.

LARGE MEMBERSHIP.

A local union of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters was organized in Barberton Tuesday night with 75 members. National President A. S. Hughes was assisted by a large delegation of Akron potters in installing the union. This union is the ninth union to be installed in the last three months.

ONE PRINTER ON.

There seems to be a shortage of ware at the East Liverpool pottery, and it is announced that but one printer is working. It has been many months since there has been a shortage of ware at this plant, but this is a condition that always exists at a pottery at some time or another.

TEMPORARY QUARTERS.

The Crescent pottery of the Trenton Potteries company will soon resume operations. A frame structure has been erected in the yard and will be used as a packing shed until a new one is built.

TRANSFERER ILL.

Owing to the serious illness of one of the members of his crew, the others and Edward Hatton, a printer at the Wallace & Chetwynd pottery, did not work yesterday.

EAST END

The recent wreck on the Monongahela division of the Pittsburg Railway company in which a car crashed into a house near Brown's Bridge, was read with more than usual interest by street railway employes residing in the East End. This runaway car was in charge of Motorman John Porter, who formerly resided at Ralston Crossing, near the power house, and who for several years was employed on the East Liverpool railway as motorman and conductor. Porter was unable to check the speed of his car as it was descending the hill, and when it crashed into a house and injured about a dozen persons, Porter sustained a deep cut in his lip, and was otherwise bruised.

That same day Porter left the employ of the company and has not been seen since, although it was said the accident was no fault of his, and this was verified by the passengers on the car, who said that he could not get his brakes to work. A day or so later Porter was seen on a train passing through this city, and it is presumed by his friends here that he was on his way to Cleveland.

Wright vs. Hays.

Before a jury in the court of Justice L. W. Carman in the East End last evening the case of Wright against Hays was tried. The amount involved was but $30.40, for work and labor, but it was decided by the jury that the contract was not completed and that the amount claimed was not yet due. Just as soon as the contract is completed the money will be paid to the plaintiff.

Quarterly Conference.

The last quarterly conference of the conference year will be held this evening at the Erie street M. E. church on Pennsylvania avenue. All arrangements have been completed and the meeting is expected to be largely attended. Dr. Charles E. Manchester, of Steubenville, will be present and preside. The annual reports of the officers of the church will be presented.

In Full Operation.

At the East End plant of the American Sewer Pipe company this morning the second large press was started, which was expected to be started yesterday. This places the factory in full operation. All the pressers are at work and all is hustle about the big plant. Some repairs are being made to the kilns, but this work will be completed within a few days.

A Fight Occurred.

The revival meeting last evening at the Neville institute under the direction of the Free Methodists was well attended, but it was stated in the East End this morning that a fight occurred just outside the building, and that black eyes resulted. The names of the interested parties could not be learned.

O. U. A. M. Prospering.

Ohio Valley Council, No. 23, O. U. A. M. will meet this evening, when it is expected that the first and second degrees will be conferred. A number of candidates are to be initiated and the meeting gives promise of being an interesting one. Several applications for membership will be presented.

New K. G. E. Lodge.

Everything is now in readiness to commence active work soliciting membership for the new lodge of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, which it is proposed to locate in the East End. The papers were received last evening, and it will be but a few days until active solicitation commences. It is the opinion of many of the lodge in the ciey that the new East End lodge will be ready to institute within a month or six weeks. A membership at the start of from 50 to 60 members is expected.

kills, not necessarily suddenly, but SURELY. It preys upon the intellectual powers more than we realize. It consumes the vitality faster than nature can replenish it, and we cannot tell just what moment a temporary or complete aberration of the mind will result. Optical Talks...

After the child has reached the age of ten years the danger is in a great measure past—but by this it should not be understood that there is no further need of care. The eye, at all times delicate, is nearly formed about that age and if the sight is perfect then, there is every reason to believe that, with proper care, it will remain so. But what if it is abused? Here, indeed, is the seat of nearly all eye trouble. Straining the eyes by reading in a poor light, reading in a moving car or carriage, compelling the eyes to work on after they have given warning that they are ready to stop—these are the most frequent cause of eye difficulties.

The eyes are frequently misused by reading some of the cheap literature of the times. The very poor books typographically—small print, poorly printed—are frequently a great injury to the eyesight, especially if they are read after night. It cannot be too strongly urged upon parents to lay aside their prejudice against glasses for children. In some cases they are absolutely necessary to the welfare of the future eyesight. Glasses were not invented as a luxury, although some persons appear to think so, and when needed at all they are needed by children even more than by their parents.

Were parents to pay as much attention to the eyes of their children as they do to the other duties of mother and father the children would greatly benefit thereby.

MISS MEREDITH'S PARTY

An Enjoyable Affair Given Prior to Her Departure for School.

Miss Anna Meredith was hostess last evening at a very delightful reception, given to her young friends as a kind of farewell, previous to her leaving for college next week.

Guests to the number of thirty-five were present, and the evening spent in dancing. The lower floor of the Meredith residence had been covered with crash for the occasion. A part of Nowling's orchestra provided the music. The programs were very pretty. They were of white and upon the cover in old English were the hostess' initials "A. M." and the date.

Refreshments were served at midnight. The dining room was especially pretty. From the chandelier, directly over the center of the table long strands of tule, entwined with smilax, were festooned to the corners of the spacious board. Carnations were used as a decoration.

The occasion was most enjoyable. Miss Meredith leaves in a few days for a week's stay at Atlantic City, after which she will enter a school in Philadelphia.

PENNSY AND GOULD TRUCE.

Rumor Helped Advance Stocks of Their Interests—New High Records In Some Stocks.

New York, Sept. 11.—For the most part the tendency of yesterday's market was irregular, though opening considerable strength, which was well maintained until the late hour. About that time rumors of the serious illness of Russell Sage caused a selling movement in the Gould stocks, the remainder of the list being sympathetically affected. Conditions as a whole favored higher prices. London reported a strong tone for Americans, another gold importation was announced, call money, though nominally as high as 9 per cent, was actually hardly higher than 7 per cent, crop news was encouraging and early advices told of a truce between the Pennsylvania and Gould interests.

Largely as a result of these last rumors, and aided by clever manipulation, Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio, whose interests are virtually identical, advanced over a point each and the Gould stocks also gained.

United States Steel shares were taken up, the common being extensively traded in. There were also movements in other stocks. Among the features of the last hour were recessions in Baltimore and Ohio and some other stocks. The selling movement wiped out the greater part of the day's gains and in some instances caused net losses.

President Roosevelt is no politician. He is something better—a typical, whole-hearted, whole-souled American. Whether he mingles with the Four Hundred of New York, a place among whom is his by inheritance; with the farmers, fishermen and manufacturers of New England; with the cowboys of the west; with the planters of the south; with the Locomotive Firemen; with union or confederate veterans, he is equally at home, and equally welcome. He is a broad-minded, liberal man; a man whose views are outspoken and never veiled. All may not agree with him, but none can fail to admire him. The old-fashioned description, "a gentleman and a scholar," fits him admirably, and the more the people come to know him the more his popularity increases.

McKinley Memorial day will be widely observed next Sunday. The governors of several states besides Ohio have issued proclamations calling attention to the anniversary of the late president's death and asking that appropriate services be held on that date. The response will be general.

"A highly elastic India rubber platform" is what the New York Sun calls the Johnson production in Ohio. No other kind could be made to cover all sorts of Democracy, and it is extremely doubtful if this one can.

Arkansas has gone Democratic, and the party organs will have to turn there for comfort, unable, even by the most laborious processes, to figure out Democratic gains in Maine.

St. Louis should save that oath-bound secret society of Democratic boodlers to exhibit at its World's Fair. The best way would be to keep its members safe in jail until they are wanted as a show attraction.

Uncle Sam has $574,000,000 of gold on hand, and the fact worries the Democrats. But it is less bothersome to manage than a deficit, which doubtless would have existed had Bryan been elected in 1900.

The Haitian admiral who blew up his ship and went down with it is the sort of hero his enemies delight to see. He is a dead hero.

What is the matter with St. Louis as a field for missionary workers?

The president insists that only courageous honesty is good. But without courage, honesty would not long exist.

It is announced that Senator Hanna will tour the state, accompanied by speakers of national reputations.

American exports more than keep pace with the progress of the country.

There are to be golf tournaments in China. What next?

OBITUARY

Wm. Burns.

William Burns, a former member of the undertaking firm of Burns & McQuilken, of Salineville and East Liverpool, died suddenly of apoplexy at Salineville at 8 o'clock last night. He was 47 years of age, and is survived by a wife and one son. Mr. Burns just entered a restaurant at Salineville a few minutes before his death for the purpose of getting a lunch. He fell from his seat and was taken to his home, directly across the street. He died a few minutes later. Undertaker Clem McQuilken left East Liverpool on the midnight train for Salineville where he will take charge of the remains and burial of his late partner.

The deceased was well known in this city where he had many friends during his residence here. Salineville was his home and a few months ago he severed his connection with the firm of Burns & McQuilken and continued a business in the same line at Salineville, which was formerly conducted by the firm. No funeral arrangements have been made.

J. B. Leatherby.

J. B. Leatherby, aged about 55 years, died Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock, of kidney trouble, at his home in New Somerset, Jefferson county. His wife survives. He was very well known in this city, having many friends in East Liverpool and several relatives in Wellsville. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock this morning from the First Christian church at New Somerset, and was attended by H. C. Hale and family of Wellsville, who was a nephew. The interment was in the New Somerset cemetery.

PRESIDENT AT OYSTER BAY.

Storer, Tower and Others Being Considered For Ambassador to Germany.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 11.—President Roosevelt returned from his southern tour yesterday afternoon. The Sylph, on which he came from New York, arrived here at 4:50 p. m. The president was accompanied by Secretary Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Loeb, Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel Roosevelt. The last three joined him in New York. The president was pretty well tired out and retired at an early hour. Secretary Cortelyou went to his home in Hempstead.

It was authoritatively denied last night that the United States government has sounded the German government as to the appointment of Bellamy Storer, at present minister to Spain, as the successor to Andrew D. White, as American ambassador to Germany. It can be stated, by the same authority, that the successor to Mr. White has not yet been selected. The name of Mr. Storer is being considered, as is also that of Mr. Tower, the present ambassador to Russia. Several others, well known in diplomatic circles, are under consideration. It is expected that the new ambassador will be announced in a few days.

President Roosevelt will make no more appointments to receive visitors before going on his western trip, which begins on Sept. 19. He will devote the time between now and then in preparing for the trip and in disposing of accumulated business. This will not interfere with the reception to his friends and neighbors of Nassau county, arranged for the 15th inst. The hours of the reception will be from 3 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon. The citizens are making great preparations for the event.

NEW YARDS IN WEST END

will be allowed to pass each other at this point, and the siding that has been used for this purpose at the Thompson pottery can be used for other purposes. Frequently passenger trains are held on this siding to wait the coming of trains from the west, but now these trains can come to this city, unload their passengers, and if sidings are to be used between this city and Wellsville, the new sidings at the West End can be used.

Contractor Stringer has three large derricks in use on this improvement, and it may be that another will be erected in a short time. One of these derricks is being used in the excavating, one in taking the stone from the old abutments, while the third is used for general purposes. All the derricks are being painted red. Offices have been established at the improvement, in which plans, surveys, materials and instruments are kept. This is done at all places where prolonged railroad improvements are being made. Quite a large force of men is employed, from skilled labor, such as stone masons and engineers, to laborers.

In proposing to double track the road east of the passenger station a perplexing problem is presented to the railroad company, or at least might seem so to the general public. While it is a known fact that the railroad company owns property for quite a distance back north of the tracks, it does not own the land upon which the Ohio abutment of the East Liverpool bridge is built. What will be done when the company is ready to construct its second track in that vicinity will be interesting. It is to be generally supposed that the railroad company and the bridge company will enter into an amicable agreement, but at all events some change will have to be made in the Ohio abutment of the bridge. This matter has been talked over by a number of persons interested in the bridge and also in the work the railroad company proposes to do in this vicinity, but the ultimate outcome of this one question is being awaited with interest. It may be that the railroad company will be compelled to stand all the expense of making the changes in the Ohio abutment, and moving the anchors of the bridge further north.

AT THE THEATER

"Mr. Plaster of Paris" one of the most popular of those light frothy, fun making creations is playing to record breaking houses everywhere. The production is wonderfully enjoyable and away from the conventional. The comedy is devoid of ancient ideas, there are pretty girls, unctuous comedians, splendid specialties and together with a lot of bright music combine to form a diverting entertainment. At the Grand next Monday night.

One on the College Man.

"Say," said the short, stout man, "I want to know something. You know there are lots of dialects in the United States and lots of funny words, and I can't tell what is right and what isn't. Now, for instance, one of those Reubens from down east was showing me his turnout, and he spoke of 'that air horse' and 'this 'ere wagon.'"

"That's wrong, awful bad form," interjected the young man fresh from college who had been listening intently for a chance to display his wisdom.

"Well, then," replied the stout man, with the satisfied twinkle of a successful plotter, "I suppose I can't say that I don't like that air from you open window on this car."

"Oh, come on! The lunch is on me again," said the college man as the office clock struck an even dozen and the pretty typewriter gave a convulsive choke.—New York Tribune.

NEW SIDEWALKS

Are Being Laid By Property Owners on a Number of Streets.

The resolutions recently passed by council authorizing property owners to lay sidewalks in front of property facing on Liverpool street, Commerce street, Fourteenth street, Clark avenue, Sixth street, Seventh street and Kelly avenue seems to have taken effect, as new sidewalks are now being placed on both sides of all of these streets.

The resolutions require that the walks be laid at once, and it is supposed that property owners are in haste for this reason.

Lisbon, Fourth, Commerce and Kelly avenue have already been paved, and the balance of them are either being paved or will be paved in the near future.

When the sidewalks have all been laid and the streets paved they will be in first-class condition. The resolutions were passed for this purpose and not because council wishes to impose upon the people.

He was landed in the city jail and will be given a hearing before the mayor this afternoon. Jones wass allowed to go free, but may yet be placed under arrest.

Not Satisfied With Code.

Mayor Fogo and Solicitor Boyd returned from Columbus this morning, having been away since yesterday morning. They report the code bill, as at present arranged, very unsatisfactory as it requires a host of city office holders for every city that are unnecessary and only makes additional expense. They think this clause in the code will be re-arranged, however, so that only the larger cities will require these extra officials.

Old Belfry Stands.

Work on the steeple of the U. P. church in this city is now about completed, but instead of a new belfry and modern steeple being put up, the old belfry has been allowed to remain and the old top piece of the steeple has been placed upon it, making the building look entirely different. They will be repainted. W. C. Breedlaw quickly did his work and received $100 for tearing down the most dangerous part of the steeple.

NOT A MURDERER

BIG SIX IS QUIETLY BLACKING SHOES IN ALLIANCE.

Is Not Wanted in Pennsylvania And Has Not Been There—Fake Exposed.

"Big Six" Johnson, a notorious character and former resident of East Liverpool, is not a fugitive from justice charged with the shooting and probable murder of Robert Gilmore at Finleyville, Pa., on Tuesday afternoon.

With glaring headlines a local evening paper published a story to the contrary yesterday. At the central police station last evening the hot air artist who compiled the fabrication was the topic of conversation. The voices all chimed in that it was purely a fake and was written without the least foundation.

'Tis true that East Liverpool's "Big Six" is out of the city and that he bears a reputation that would not bar any from believing the worst report of him, but a man should not be stamped upon simply because he is down.

"Big Six" is now in Alliance, not attempting in any manner to elude the police. He is working at a shoe stand and is not worrying in the least about being arrested upon a murder charge. Officer Mahoney while en route home yesterday from Canton, where he lodged "Zip" Farmer in the workhouse, stayed in Alliance a few minutes, and states that the first man he met upon leaving the train was the notorious "Big Six."

"I shook hands with him and held quite a conversation with him," said the officer. "He took me to a barber shop at my request and inquired about his acquaintances in this city. He stated that he would be here on a visit in the near future."

Thompson Allison, president of the board of education, realizing that the schools are overcrowed, is making an effort to rent a room in some private the half-day attendance necessary in the primary room on account of its crowded condition is increasing.

Parents say that it is asking too much to require a single teacher to handle 100 pupils when she is provided with desks for only half that number. The president of the board, Mr. Allison, however, says: "The people ought to be satisfied. The board has done what it thought was right. If the patrons of the school are not suited with our management let them get a new school board."

Glee Club Concert.

The Anthracite Glee club gave its last concert at Rock Springs park last night. Mr. Marz, temporary leader of the famous Rocerto orchestra, stated that the miners' music is excellent, yet the audience was not as large as it might have been. The miners have not received the support expected, in spit of the fact that the money made by the musicians goes to pay the living expenses of the strikers. The club will probably give a series of street concerts in East Liverpool.

OFFICERS SUSPENDED

CHIEF THORN LAYS OFF TWO WELLSVILLE POLICEMEN.

Chief Thorn on Tuesday evening suspended Officers Davis and Marshall, of the local police force, for an indefinite period.

The officers, it is said, did not report for duty Tuesday at the usual time and as a result Chief Thorn and Officer Houser began a search for them and found them in a disorderly house on Second street asleep in bed. The officers gave no explanation for their action and were then suspended by the chief.

When Mayor Fogo returned from Columbus this morning he was asked what he would do with the officers. He only stated that he would make an investigation and see what should be done. For the present time City Building Officer Elliott will cover one of the beats, while the other will be covered by ex-Officer Henthorn.

Officer Davis has gone to Pittsburg and will remain there for a few days, while Marshall still remains in the city. They have nothing to say regarding the matter accept to admit that they have been suspended by the chief.

The public opinion is that Chief Thorn took the proper action under the circumstances, and that the police force should be reorganized.

The story is now the topic of general conversation, as the officers have been very popular heretofore and their action comes as a great surprise.

DR. GLADDEN TALKS

NO CHURCH UNION FOR TWO YEARS AT LEAST.

Unusual Scenes Witnessed at Closing of Session—Seven Members Received Into the Conference.

"The most harmonious conference held in the history of the Methodist Protestant church of the Pittsburg district was that which closed at Knoxville M. P. church at Pittsburg," said Rev. W. H. Gladden, president of the conference, to the News Review today. Monday evening there was a great revival at the Knoxville church, at which 24 persons knelt at the altar. Not for years were such scenes witnessed at a conference.

In speaking of the church union, Mr. Gladden said that as the matter was first started in the United Brethren church, most of the preliminary work would fall to that church. However, it will be two years at least before any definite action is taken in this matter. The general conference of the M. P. church will not meet until May 24 at Montgomery, Ala., and in the same city the general conference of the United Brethren church will also meet. It is then that the idea will be talked over and decision reached. "So far the matter is meeing with general favor," said Mr. Gladden, "and it is a most excellent idea."

During the conference seven ministers were received into the Pittsburg conference. Three were from New York, one from Indiana and one from Virginia. Besides these Dr. David Jones, formerly president of Adrian college, and Rev. A. T. Steele, of this city, were also admitted. Still there is room for other ministers in this conference.

In declining to take the First church charge at Allegheny, Rev. A. T. Steele, of this city is going to Waynesburg, Pa., will receive a salary from $500 to $800 less, than if he would have accepted the Allegheny charge. He however pledged his word that he would go to Waynesburg, and refused to consider a higher salary offer from the First church, Allegheny, on this account.

Gun Club and Its Visitors and Friends Had a Day of Fine Sport.

EXCELLENT SCORES MADE

The Prize Winners Announced, Local Talent Coming in For Its Share of the Money—Close of the Interesting Contest.

Only a happy remembrance is left of the second annual tournament of the East Liverpool Gun club under auspicious circumstances at the club grounds in Chester yesterday. The members of the club feel proud of the fact that it was one of the most successful shoots, both financially and socially, that has been pulled off in the state this season.

Among the score of shooters from out of town there were several well advanced in marksmanship. E. F. Haak, of Canton, proved himself to be an expert, winning in every event and first money in five. W. T. Early, of Salem, was a close second, and George Cochran, of Washington, Pa., showed remarkable ability.

Of the local men who participated can be said that, considering their small amount of practice, they made a fine showing. Several prizes were won by them and the majority pulled out of the events a trifle to the good. Barring one feature the events met the approval of the entire contingent. The Magau trap used did not work as was desired. It sent the blue rocks true for the shooters when standing in four places, starting from the left, but in the fifth place they were compelled to shoot every time at the rock which sailed in a direction parallel to their positions. To those who shot quickly this feature was a worry. The trap will be thoroughly repaired before another shoot is held. From the trap were sent over 6,000 rocks, of which there were possibly 3,500 broken.

The following are the members of the local club and all are to be complimented upon their efforts in making the day such a successful one:

R. L. Edmonston, president; Hugh Johnston, vice president; Dr. J. M. Little, captain; R. W. Sample, secretary; W. E. Vodrey, assistant secretary; I. N. Crable, treasurer; George F. Brunt, L. H. Brush, H. E. Bicknell, Dr. F. F. Davis, William M. Foutts, J. W. Hunter, Dr. W. A. Hobbs, William F. Lewis, Dr. L. C. Jackman, E. M. Knowles, A. E. McDonald, J. W. Reese, C. A. Smith, Dr. J. A. Saint, D. H. Yant, J. M. Thompson, Harold Marshall, H. Homer Knowles, John A. Gardner.

In yesterday's issue of the News Review nine of the events were exclusively given with their results, making it necessary only to report the four concluding events. They were as follows:

Tenth event, 15 targets—Kingsbury, 13; Bilsing, 15; Cochran, 14; Besserer, 9; Pills, 10; Saffold, 9; Haak, 12; Russi, 10; Little, 6; Early, 12; Jackman, 14; Foutts, 9; Lewis, 8; Johnston, 10.

Eleventh event, 20 targets—Kingsbury, 12; Bilsing, 16; Cochran, 17; Besserer, 17; Pills, 13; Saffold, 14; Haak, 16; Russi, 13; Crable, 13; Little, 14; Early, 18; Edmonston, 15; Jackman, 16; Lewis, 14; Johnston, 14.

Twelfth event, 10 targets—Kingsbury, 6; Bilsing, 9; Cochran, 6; Besserer, 5; Pills, 8; Saffold, 9; Haak, 9; Russi, 7; Crable, 2; Little, 6; Early, 8; Jackman, 4; Lewis, 4; Johnston, 6.

Thirteenth event, 25 targets—Kingsbury, 14; Bilsing, 20; Cochran, 21; Besserer, 19; Pills, 19; Saffold, 15; Haak, 23; Russi, 18; Crable, 14; Little, 9; Early, 21.

Purses were divided according to the Rose system, and as a result very few escaped without receiving a prize. Those receiving first money in each event were: First event, Cochran, $1.40; second event, Cochran and Haak, each $3.50; third event, Besserer, $5.50; fourth event, Haak, $4.50; fifth event, Early, $2.80; sixth event, Agnew, $3.50; seventh event, Haak, $4; eighth event, Early, $2.90; ninth event, Haak, $5; tenth event, Cochran, $4; eleventh event, Early, $6.25; twelfth event, Haak, $4; thirteenth event, Haak, $7.30.

The $25 average money was divided as follows: Haak, $10; Cochran and Early, $3.75 each; Agnew and Besserer, $2.50 each; Saffold, $2.50.

FAIR EXCHANGE

Sometimes the back aches with a dull, indescribable feeling making you weary and restless; sometimes pain shoots across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use plastering or rubbing the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. To exchange a bad back for a new and stronger one, follow the example of this East Liverpool citizen.

Mr. Wm. Anderson, of 305 Lisbon street, says: "During the civil war I enlisted and served three years in the Forty-second Ohio infantry. From the exposure during the war I attributed the severe aching and weakness in the loins and muscular rheumatism of recent years which all seemed to center in my kidneys. In the morning when first getting up I was very dizzy until I had moved around for a time and my nervous system became affected, causing a fluttering and fullness around the heart. Seeing an advertisement in the paper I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy and took them. A few doses gave me relief. The improvement was gradual and continued as the medicine got thoroughly into my system. I firmly believe that Doan's Kidney Pills will in every case as they did in mine, prove the justness of the claims made for them."

Cincinnati, Sept. 11.—Additional responses to inquiries yesterday had been received from governors, members of congress, church dignitaries and others, endorsing the movement for McKinley memorial services in the churches next Sunday. Rev. John M. Schick, President Roosevelt's pastor at Washington, and Rev. Frank M. Bristol, pastor of the church McKinley formerly attended in Washington, both telegraph that they would speak on the life and character of McKinley next Sunday. Archbishop Elder yesterday issued an order that the Litany of the Saints be publicly recited next Sunday after high mass.

Pittsburg, Sept. 11.—Pittsburg and Allegheny ministers of all denominations are most interested in making next Sunday a great memorial to the life and work of the late president, William McKinley. In nearly every church of the two cities memorial services will be held, and since the proclamation of the recorder, announcements were coming in thick and fast of the intention of the ministers to generally observe the day.

Gov. Stone Issued Proclamation.

Harrisburg, Sept. 11.—Governor Stone yesterday issued the following proclamation:

"In accordance with the action of the governor of our neighboring state of Ohio, and as a fitting tribute to the memory of William McKinley, late president of the United States, who was held in such high personal regard by the citizens of our commonwealth, I, William A. Stone, governor of Pennsylvania, recommend that Sunday, Sept. 14, the first anniversary of his death, be reverently observed by the people of this state, and that memorial services be held in the churches of all denominations throughout the commonwealth at the regular hour of worship.

"W. A. Stone,
"Governor of Pennsylvania."

Helena, Mont., Sept. 11.—Governor Toole issued a proclamation yesterday recommending that the churches of all denominations throughout the state shall hold memorial services next Sunday, the first anniversary of the death of President McKinley.

St. Paul, Sept. 11.—Governor Van Sant yesterday issued a proclamation urging that appropriate memorial services be held throughout the state on the anniversary of the death of President McKinley.

Tribute of President's Pastor.

Steubenville, O., Sept. 11.—Rev. Dr. C. E. Manchester, who was President McKinley's pastor, gave out a statement yesterday as follows:

"The American people should perpetually observe in a special manner the anniversary of the death of the lamented McKinley. Without doubt he was the best loved president that this country has ever seen, and our wounded hearts are not yet healed. The luster of his character has grown brighter during the past year. We see how patriotic he was, how pure in thought and action. His every heart beat was for his country. His death was that of a martyr. His life will be an inspiration to brave manhood for all time since we caught a glimpse of his. God help the patient widow, whose great wish is that they may soon be reunited. All praise to Governor Nash for the proclamation. McKinley memorial day should be permanent in our calendar."

Smith-Smith.

The marriage of Mr. Wm. Smith, of Chester, W. Va., and Miss Margaret Smith, of Toronto, occured last evening at the First M. E. parsonage. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock, by Rev. Dr. Clark Crawford. The groom is employed as a dipper in the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery, in Chester, and upon returning home the happy young couple were accorded a rousing reception by the pottery employes. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home on the Southside.

Divorced at Steubenville.

Laura Black secured a divorce at Steubenville from her husband, James Alexander Black, on the ground of willful absence from his wife and family, failure to provide, etc. The wife testified that she has supported herself and children by her own exertions, and five years previous to their parting she had worked in a pottery, and at present is working as a domestic in an East Liverpool family.

Dyspepsia, biliousness, nervousness and miserableness all cured with Walther's Peptonized Port.

All run down! Drilled out, no life, no ambition, no appetite, no hope, discouraged and blue. How familiar those symptoms are. Nearly everyone at some time or other has experienced some or all of them, and worried along trusting to nature alone for recuperation. Maybe a little assistance right now might not only hasten recovery, but prevent a more serious result. Right now is the time to take a cup of Wright's Celery Tea when you first realize your condition to be on the decline, and put a stop to it at once. Drink a cup of the tea tonight and get up ready for your day's duty tomorrow. There often comes a time in the struggle with pulmonary disease when the victim loses heart and gives up hope. The ambition to be up and around gives way before growing weakness, and the sufferer keeps to the bed.

No one who suffers from lung disease should lose heart or give up hope while there is a possibility of cure. In many cases Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured lung "trouble" when the cough was obstinate and deep seated, with hemorrhage, emaciation, night-sweats and general weakness. A great many men and women are living to-day in the full enjoyment of health and happiness who had been "given up" by doctors, but found a perfect and permanent cure in the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

"My wife had hemorrhage of the lungs," writes W. A. Sanders, of Hern, Mason Co., W. Va. "She had ten hemorrhages, and the people all around here said she would never be well again. But she began to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she soon began to gain strength and flesh. After taking ten bottles she was entirely well. Should you think this would do you any good to publish, just use it, and if any one disputes the merits of this almost omnipotent medicine they may enclose self-addressed envelope with stamp, and I will answer, the same as written in this letter."

ECZEMA CURED
—BY—
LIFE PLANT.

Stillwater, O., Nov. 5th, 1898.

Life Plant Co.,

Messrs:—After trying the best physicians and the popular remedies of the day for fifteen years for a stubborn case of Eczema, without being benefited, and as physicians claimed there was no cure for me I had concluded to abandon the use of all medicines, believing my case incurable.

Six years ago, hearing through a friend who had tried it, that LIFE PLANT was a wonderful remedy, I was persuaded to make one more trial. $5 worth of LIFE PLANT cured me and I would not take the disease back to keep for thousands of dollars. I was cured six years ago and the disease does not return.

Since being cured myself I have persuaded a number of my friends who had bad cases of Eczema, to try LIFE PLANT, and it cured in every case; and the best of all is, they stay cured. I have given you herein a plain statement of facts and you are at liberty to publish the same for the benefit of those afflicted. Yours truly,

W. H. HOUK.

STRONG EFFORT IS PUT FORTH

PUPILS WILL FALL BEHIND

At the beginning of the school year an interesting question presents itself in regard to the regular attendance of the pupils. At this time the foundation for the year's work is laid, and if it be crippled by irregular attendance the pupil falls behind in his work, becomes discouraged, fails in one or more branches, and soon finds himself ready to discontinue his education, with little thought or care for the future.

Supt. Rayman, when seen by a News Review representative today, expressed himself as being very anxious to have the children of the local schools start in and attend regularly. Many parents are of the opinion that a day's absence now and then will amount to little, but this is a most erroneous idea, since the interest in the work is not sustained. Observation and experience teach that over 90 per cent of the pupils who attend regularly win their promotion every year.

Then, too, regular attendance is just as important, and even more so in the first year's work as in any, because with the new experience the child acquires habits of regularity which follow him through the entire course and ultimately through life. The school authorities are especially anxious that the parents shall give the matter their most careful consideration, and see to it that their children are in school every day, and then they can reasonably expect good results.

The last compulsory education law passed by the general assembly of this state provides that "Every parent, guardian or other person having charge of any child between the ages of 8 and 14 years shall send such child to a public, private or parochial school for the full time that the school attended is in session, which shall in no case be for less than 24 weeks; and said attendance shall begin with the first week of the school term unless the child is excused from such attendance by the superintendent of the public schools in city or other districts having such superintendent."

HIGH SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Is Remarkably Good—Freshman Class Largest in City's History.

That the local high school is steadily growing is shown by the recent report made by Supt. R. E. Rayman. The report shows that the freshman class is composed of 109 pupils—51 boys and 58 girls; the sophomore class, 58 pupils—21 boys and 37 girls; junior class, 47—18 boys and 29 girls; senior class 35—10 boys and 25 girls.

This is the largest senior class in the history of the school. By this report it will be seen that there are just 100 boys and 149 girls in the high school. Thus the attendance of the boys is about 68 per cent of the girls, which is a very good showing.

Witnesses in Hiding.

The Pittsburg police authorities were notified yesterday that Levi Allen and his wife, of Steubenville, who are two of the most important witnesses against Joseph E. Allen, under indictment for the murder of Achsah King, had disappeared from their homes and could not be found. Owing to this fact, the trial of Allen, which was to have begun yesterday, has been postponed. Allen's wife was given a divorce in Steubenville yesterday, on the ground that he had threatened her life.

ACCUSED BY UNCLE SAM

Young Man Arrested Charged With Robbing a Postoffice at Newell's Run.

Clarence Bell, aged 18, of Newell's Run, O., was arrested at Ballentyne's clay bank, across the river from Toronto, yesterday morning by Deputy United States Marshal John S. McCallister, of Marietta, on a charge of robbing the postoffice in that town.

Newell's Run is a little country village about 16 miles above Marietta, and the postoffice is in the village store. On the night of July 31, during a terrific storm the store was entered and the postoffice robbed of a quantity of stamps and some money. Young Bell, whose home is a mile away from Newell's Run, was missing after the robbery, and as he had been in trouble on a former occasion, suspicion naturally attached to him.

Bell had received mail at Toronto from his home and until recently had been employed at the Great Western sewer pipe plant. A week ago he left and went to work in the Ballentyne clay mines, across the river. Yesterday morning Marshal McCallister, accompanied by Marshal Murray, made a search for Bell along the West Virginia side and located him. He offered no resistance. He was taken to Steubenville on a trolley car, where he was arraigned before United States Commissioner Finley.

He pleaded not guilty and was remanded to jail under $1,000 bail. His hearing has been set for Wednesday of next week.

C. & P. EXTENSION

Engineers Making a Survey for a Line to Dennison.

Uhrichsville, Sept. 11.—The Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad may connect with the Panhandle line at Dennison in a short time. The farmers living up Healea valley are much interested over the new C. & P. extension through the ridge and down the valley. Engineers have looked over the ground to ascertain the feasibility of a line from the present southern terminus of the C. & P. at Klondike to Dennison. The route will be a direct one, extending in a southerly direction and connecting with the Panhandle at Dennison in the new East End yards and running near the rolling mill. The only hindrance to this extension is a hill a short distance northeast of Dennison. It has been the subject of much discussion. The new route will necessitate the tunneling of that hill. Engineers have looked at this hill with that view in mind.

When the C. & P. was constructed to the coal fields at Klondike the matter of constructing a tunnel was the chief obstacle that delayed further extension. For some time this route is said to have been under consideration. The extension is thought to be an early possibility. The extension will mean the opening of a vast field near Dennison.

The Canton Coal company has already leased the coal land on two farms, while several other farmers have leased their coal to another company.

Brain Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You may prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get the reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's.

Strike Leader and Pennsylvania Governor to Hold Conference on Saturday.

Railroad Employes' Committee Drafted Three Arbitration Bills—Stone Willing to Convene Lawmakers, if Assured Bill Will Pass.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 11.—Some important messages passed between the executive mansion at Harrisburg and President Mitchell last night. Mr. Mitchell, who was spending the evening at Harvey's lake, telephoned to this city that he had accepted an invitation from Governor Stone to confer with him at Harrisburg on Saturday. He did not know what matters would be discussed at the conference.

Richardson Bore Messages to Mitchell

Harrisburg, Sept. 11.—Colonel William F. Richardson, keeper of the state arsenal, who was sent by Governor Stone to Wilkesbarre yesterday with a message to President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, returned late last night and reported to the governor at the executive mansion. Colonel Richardson said on his arrival here that his mission was such that he could not disclose anything, and would not even admit that he had gone to see Mitchell or that they had met. He would disclose nothing after leaving the mansion. Governor Stone was even more reticent than Colonel Richardson. All that he could be induced to say was that he was doing everything possible to settle the strike and that he could not predict what would be the result. The governor would not say whether or not he had heard from Mitchell through Colonel Richardson or whether the latter has seen the strike leader.

Committee Drafted Arbitration Bills.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 11.—A committee from the state legislative board of railroad employes of Pennsylvania will go to Wilkesbarre today to meet President Mitchell and the district presidents of the United Mine Workers for the purpose of discussing certain arbitration legislation to be considered by the general assembly if Governor Stone shall call an extra session.

The committee has drafted three bills to be submitted to the mine leaders and if they are approved by them they will be presented to the governor, with a request that he call an extra session for their consideration. The committee in charge of the proposed legislation has been assured by the executive that if he can be satisfied that the legislature would enact legislation that would settle the coal strike and prevent other strikes he will not hesitate to call the legislature together.

The bills which have been prepared by the committee provide for compulsory arbitration in labor disputes, which shall be submitted to boards and commissions to be appointed by the courts and by the governor, and whose decision shall be final. The bills are not yet completed, but drafts have been submitted to several prominent attorneys, who have advised those in charge of the proposed legislation that the measures are not in conflict with the constitution.

The railroad committee consists of Milton T. Robinson, of Harrisburg; William J. Zerby, of Mauch Chunk, and George W. Coyle, of Philadelphia.

Quay Says Strike May Be Issue.

New York, Sept. 11.—Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, returned from New York yesterday from the Adirondacks. He said:

"I saw Senator Platt this morning. I am not here on matters relating to the coal strike. I am on my way to Philadelphia after a vacation. I shall leave on the 4 o'clock train. I do not know when the anthracite strike will end. I have had no conference regarding the strike settlement with any one since I have been in the Adirondacks. The coal strike is not a political issue in Pennsylvania now. There is no telling whether it may be until the campaign begins in earnest."

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 11.—The coroner's jury investigating the cause of death of the Italian union miner, Castelli, when he and Frank Portray were attacked by strikers at Maltby last Monday morning, returned a verdict last evening that the murdered man came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by parties unknown to the jury.

Portay, who sustained serious injuries at the hands of the mob, was able to be present and testified. One of his arms is broken and he is injured internally. Ten men had been arrested by last night, charged with being implicated in the assault on the Italians. They will be given a hearing before Magistrate Pollock today.

Russians Order British Expelled.

Pekin, Sept. 11.—Paul Lessar, the Russian minister here, has advised the Russian commander in Manchuria that the presence of foreigners in Manchuria during the military occupation is objectionable, and he is directed to expel the British imperial customs employes who may be sent to Manchuria to resume charge of the postal service.

AGAIN ATTACKED

Mary Burris And Others Claim Testator's Old Will Was Destroyed By Himself.

Lisbon, September 11.—(Special)—Lina Hartley, of Salineville, has entered suit in common pleas court against Mrs. Mary E. Burris and 35 other heirs of Abraham Hartley, late of Salineville. She asks that the order of the probate court, probating a copy of the destroyed will of Abraham Hartley, be set aside, and the paper be held not to be the last will of the deceased.

She claims that the will was not destroyed after the death of Hartley or after he had become incapable of making a will; but that he revoked and destroyed the will himself.

Miss Hartley and Mrs. Burris would receive a much larger share of the $25,000 estate if no will existed than under the will probated.

NON-SUPPORT CASE

MRS. WILLIAM JACKSON HAS HUSBAND ARRESTED.

An Amiable Agreement Reached Between the Two Before the 'Squire.

Charged with the non-support of his minor child, William Jackson, a kiln drawer employed at Cartwright's pottery, was arrested this morning by Constable Powell and taken before 'Squire McLane.

The affidavit causing his arrest was sworn to by his wife, Edna. She stated that he had grossly neglected their boy, Richard, and that she had tried in every way to settle matters without bringing the case into the hands of the law. After carefully considering the case the 'squire dismissed Jackson upon his promise to make an amicable agreement with his spouse and care for the child in the future.

Following the dismissal Jackson produced papers showing that he is a veteran of the Spanish-American war, and applied to the 'squire to intercede for him in getting a pension. The 'squire will endeavor to get the pension.

Columbus, Sept. 11.—(Special)—The state executive committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Locomotive Engineers is here to resist the move to secure the repeal of the Jones arc light bill. MOULDMAKERS' LOCAL OUT OF BROTHERHOOD

books. These would have been returned last evening, but when a call was made at Brotherhood headquarters the offices were closed and the property could not be delivered until today.

A prominent mouldmaker said today: "I never before heard of the limit of the law being given any person found guilty on his first offense. It generally follows that, when a person is found guilty of any infraction of any law, the smallest possible fine is given for the first offense and so on until the limit is reached. But it does not seem to be the same in this case. However, we are satisfied."

The mouldmakers, at their meeting, took preliminary steps to form an independent organization. Temporary officers were named, but no time is set for a future meeting. However, there is every reason to believe that the independent local will have just as large a membership as the former local had.

National Secretary Thomas J. Duffy, when seen at headquarters this afternoon, was asked for a statement concerning the action of the mouldmakers. He said: "That is a matter that I cannot talk about at this time."

JURY LAW ATTACKED

Attorneys at Akron Hold That Present Statutes Are Unconstitutional.

Akron, Sept. 11.—Should the question be raised before Judge Hayden in the common pleas court yesterday be decided according to the contention of the defendants' attorney in the case of David Davis against the B. F. Goodrich company, the jury law under which trials are now held will be declared unconstitutional. The case is one involving $36,000, in damages and until the point raised by the defendant is decided no further hearing in it will be had.

The Toledo decision holding the law governing jury trials in Cuyahoga, Hamilton, Franklin, Lucas, Mahoning and Montgomery counties unconstitutional is the basis for the contention of the attorneys. They claim that if that law was special legislation, then the law governing counties is also special legislation.
